In 1904, when Joe Gans could not make the lightweight limit, or at least refused to do so, Britt claimed the title and was recognized by many authorities as champion. His battle with Battling Nelson in 1905 was advertised as for the lightweight championship. Nelson won and then forced Gans into his famous match at Goldfield, Nev. Britt, after quitting the ring in 1909, took to the vaudeville stage and met with success.

HISTORY OF THE FEATHERWEIGHT CLASS

John Keating claimed the featherweight championship of America in the early 1860's, but he declined to meet Nobby Clark of England in a fight for world honors. Jimmy Elliott, later American Heavyweight Champion, was substituted, but lost to Clark.

May 28, 1860, Nobby Clark beat Jimmy Elliott, 34 rounds, 1 hour and 2 minutes at Palisades, New Jersey. Nobby Clark was never beaten in America, and he returned to England and retired from the game.

Dick Hollywood and John Keating then claimed the title, but Hollywood gave Keating several terrific beatings in championship fights in the early 1860's. Hollywood then retired, and the title was claimed by Tommy Kelly (the original Tommy Kelly, not the one who boxed George Dixon in 1888).

Oct. 7, 1868, George Seddons beat Tommy Kelly, 96 rounds, lasting 1 hour and 39 minutes, at Portmouth, N. H., for the championship.

George Seddons outgrew the class, and eventually boxed Arthur Chambers for the lightweight championship. After being beaten, Seddons retired. In the early 1870's the championship was claimed by Tommy Kelly, and later by John Keating and Long Tom Ryan.

In the early 1880's the featherweight championship was claimed by Jack Keenan, until 1885, when he was beaten by Young Mitchell (John Herget). Mitchell outgrew the class, and Harry Gilmore of Canada, claimed the title in 1887, but he, too, outgrew the class after a time. Then came the era in which Ike Weir, Dal Hawkins, Cal McCarthy and George Dixon contended for the title.

On June 3, 1889, Dal Hawkins and Fred Bogan engaged in what was advertised as a featherweight title bout and at the end of the 75th round the bout was halted due to darkness and called a draw. It took place in San Francisco. The next day the bout was resumed and Hawkins was stopped by Bogan in the 15th round.

Bogan returned to Australia and Hawkins claimed the title, but both had by then outgrown the class which then had a limit of 118 pounds.

March 31, 1889—Ike Weir and Frank Murphy fought to a draw, at Kouts, Ind., 80 rounds. (Designated as world title bout.)

On July 30, Billy Murphy and Frank Murphy fought a draw of 27 rounds and then Frank returned to England, refusing to fight Weir again for the right to meet Billy Murphy. Hence the Police Gazette arranged for a championship match between Australian Billy and Weir which the latter lost.

January 13, 1890—Billy Murphy, New Zealand, knocked out Ike Weir, Ireland, at San Francisco, in 14 rounds.

The American contention was that neither Weir nor Murphy had a right to a world title claim but only to the British Empire title.

In America, George Dixon, of Boston, and Cal McCarthy, of Troy, N. Y., each of whom had graduated from the bantamweight class which at the time was recognized at 110 pounds, were the leading contenders. When Dixon stopped McCarthy at Troy in 22 rounds the ringside weight was 115 pounds and he gained recognition as the American titleholder.

April 25, 1891—Ike Weir and Johnny Griffin fought at Nantucket, Mass. The bout was stopped by police in round 4.

(Griffin had claimed title during Billy Murphy's absence in Australia.)

Dixon, on July 28, 1891, knocked out Abe Willis, featherweight champion of England, in five rounds, and thus became the world champion of the class.

Sept. 6, 1892—George Dixon knocked out Jack Skelly at New Orleans, in 8 rounds, for the world featherweight championship.

Tom O'Rourke, Dixon's manager, then gradually raised the weight limit and stipulated 120 pounds for a title match between Dixon and Solly Smith at San Francisco, October 4, 1897, Smith getting the referee's decision at the end of 20 rounds.

Smith then made a match with Dave Sullivan which was fought at Coney Island, N. Y., September 26, 1898, Smith breaking his arm and being compelled to quit in the fifth round.

Dixon challenged Sullivan and they met in the Lenox A. C., New York, November 11, 1898, and Dixon regained his title by stopping Sullivan in the tenth round, Sullivan's seconds entering the ring to prevent a knockout.

Dixon retained the title until January 9, 1900, when he was knocked out by Terry McGovern at the Broadway A. C., New York, in the eighth round. The weight was 118 pounds.

Nov. 28, 1901—Young Corbett knocked out Terry McGovern at Hartford, Conn., in 2 rounds.

(The weight was 126 pounds, nevertheless, the bout was billed as being for the featherweight championship. Corbett could never make the feather limit, and did not attempt to do so. When he and McGovern both competed in the lightweight class, Abe Attell claimed the featherweight championship.)

Attell gained the vacant title in matches with George Dixon, having drawn with him, 20 rounds, on Oct. 20, 1901, at Cripple Creek, Colo., and decisioning him, 15 rounds, Oct. 28, 1901, at St. rounds, Oct. 28, 1901, at St. Louis.

April 30, 1908—Abe Attell knocked out Brooklyn Tommy Sullivan at San Francisco, in 4 rounds in a non-title bout.

February 22, 1912—Johnny Kilbane outpointed Abe Attell at Vernon, Cal., in 20 rounds.

June 2, 1923—Eugene Criqui knocked out Johnny Kilbane at Polo Grounds, New York City, 6 rounds.

July 26, 1923—Johnny Dundee outpointed Eugene Criqui at Polo Grounds, New York City, in 15 rounds.

(In 1925, when Dundee outgrew featherweight class, an elimination tourney to determine his successor was won by Louis (Kid) Kaplan.)

Jan. 2, 1925—Louis (Kid) Kaplan knocked out Danny Kramer, in Madison Square Garden, New York City, in 9 rounds.

(By 1927 Kaplan outgrew the class. An elimination tourney made Benny Bass the leading contender.)

Sept. 12, 1927—Benny Bass outpointed Red Chapman at Philadelphia, Pa., in 10 rounds, Chapman being the N. B. A. champion.

Feb. 10, 1928—Tony Canzoneri outpointed Benny Bass in Madison Square Garden. New York City, in 15 rounds, to clinch world title.

Sept. 28, 1928—Andre Routis outpointed Tony Canzoneri at N. Y. C., in 15 rounds.

Sept. 23, 1929—Battling Battalino outpointed Andre Routis at Hartford, Conn., in 15 rounds.

(By 1932 Battalino outgrew the class. An N.B.A. elimination tournament was won by Tommy Paul of Buffalo.)

May 26, 1932—Tommy Paul outpointed Johnny Pena at Detroit, Mich., in 15 rounds. for N.B.A. title.

Oct. 13, 1932—Kid Chocolate knocked out Lew Feldman at New York, N.Y. in 12 rounds. This bout was recognized by the New York Commission as for the featherweight championship because Paul had previously lost to Feldman. The N.B.A. had not sanctioned the Feldman-Paul fight as for the crown. Chocolate later relinquished his claim to the title.

Jan. 13, 1933—Freddie Miller outpointed Tommy Paul at Chicago, Ill., in 10 rounds in an N.B.A. championship fight which New York refused to recognize.

Miller proceeded to clean up the cream of the world's contenders. He traveled all over Europe and beat all rivals, losing only two fights out of 34 and engaged in two draws. He lost only to one outstanding champion in Europe, Maurice Holtzer of France, in an overweight bout.

May 11, 1936—Miller lost to Petey Sarron, Washington, D. C., in 15 rounds.

October 29, 1937—Henry Armstrong knocked out Sarron, Madison Square Garden, in 6 rounds, to win world title.

1938—Henry Armstrong resigned as featherweight champion.

The New York State Commission, recognizing Mike Belloise of New York and Joey Archibald of Pawtucket, R. I., as the outstanding contenders, arranged a match for the St. Nicholas A. C. of New York and Archibald won the fight and recognition.

Oct. 17, 1938—Joey Archibald won decision from Mike Belloise, 15 rounds.

May 20, 1940—Joey Archibald lost to Harry Jeffra, 15 rounds, Baltimore, Md.

May 12, 1941—Joey Archibald beat Harry Jeffra, 15 rounds, Washington, D. C.

Sept. 11, 1941—Chalky Wright knocked out Joey Archibald, Washington, D.C., 11 rounds.

Petey Scalzo, on Dec. 5, 1938, knocked out Archibald in 2 rounds in an overweight match, and thereafter, tried desperately to meet Archibald in a title bout but was unsuccessful. When he refused to meet Scalzo, the N.B.A. declared Scalzo the champion and vacated Archibald's title on May 1, 1940. When Archibald fought Jeffra in Baltimore, only New York and Maryland recognized it as for the crown. But there could be no doubt that Archibald was champion and Jeffra, when he won, became successor to the crown.

As a result of this dispute, the N.B.A. had Scalzo as its champion and when Scalzo was knocked out by Richie Lemos at Los Angeles, in 5 rounds, July 1, 1941, Lemos received N.B.A. recognition. On Nov. 18, Lemos lost the N.B.A. title to Jackie Wilson. However, in 1941 Chalky Wright was the world champion.

Nov. 20, 1942—Willie Pep defeated Chalky Wright, Madison Square Garden, 15 rounds, decision. On January 18, 1943, Wilson lost the N.B.A. crown to Jackie Callura of Canada. The N.B.A. crown passed from Callura to Phil Terranova, by a knockout in 8 rounds on August 16, 1943, and Terranova lost it to Sal Bartolo on March 10, 1944 in 15 rounds at Boston.

Willie Pep, who was recognized as the international champion, joined the Navy on June 16, 1943, and was honorably discharged on February 15, 1944. He defended his title against Chalky Wright in the Garden on September 29, 1944 and won in 15 rounds. He then joined the Army. Thereafter Pep successfully defended the crown against Sal Bartolo (twice), Chalky Wright and Phil Terranova.

Oct. 29, 1948—Sandy Saddler scored a four-round knockout over Willie Pep at Madison Square Garden, New York, to win the world title.

Feb. 11, 1949—Willie Pep regained the title by winning a 15 round decision over Sandy Saddler at Madison Square Garden, New York.

September 8, 1950—Sandy Saddler regained the title by halting Willie Pep at Yankee Stadium, New York, N. Y., Pep being unable to answer the bell for the eighth round due to injury.

Saddler was inducted into the Army in 1952 and the N.B.A. recognized Percy Bassett as "Interim Champion."

Following an auto accident in which he was injured in 1956, Saddler relinquished the title in 1957.

After an elimination tournament, with Hogan (Kid) Bassey and Cherif Hamia as finalists, Bassey won the vacant title by stopping Hamia, 10 rounds, on June 24, 1957, at Paris, France.

March 18, 1959—Davey Moore won the title by knocking out Hogan (Kid) Bassey at the end of the 13th round, at Los Angeles, Calif.

March 21, 1963—Sugar Ramos won the title by stopping Davey Moore in the 11th round at Los Angeles, Calif.

September 26, 1964—Vicente Saldivar won the title by stopping Sugar Ramos in the 12th round at Mexico City, Mexico.

Feb. 12, 1966—Vicente Saldivar, Mexico City, knocked out Floyd Robertson, Ghana, in 2:29 of the second round in Mexico City. Saldivar, 125¾; Robertson, 124¼.

Aug. 7, 1966—Vicente Saldivar, Mexico City, defeated Mitsunori Seki, Japan, in Mexico City in 15 rounds by a decision. Saldivar, 124½; Seki, 124.

Jan. 29, 1967—Vicente Saldivar, Mexico City, 125, retained his crown by knocking out Mitsunori Seki, Japan, 126, in Mexico City, in the seventh round. Referee—Ramon Beruman.

June 15, 1967—Vicente Saldivar, Mexico City, 126, retained his title, defeating Howard Winstone, Wales, 125¼ by a decision in 15 rounds, in Cardiff, Wales. Referee—Wally Thom.

Oct. 14, 1967—Vicente Saldivar, Mexico City, 125, retained his crown, stopping Howard Winstone, Wales, 125¼, in 12 rounds in the Aztec Arena of Mexico City. Winstone's second tossed in the towel. Saldivar announced his retirement following his victory.

Jan. 23, 1969—Johnny Famechon, 125, Australia, decisioned Jose Legra, 124, Spain over 15 rounds to win the vacant world title. The bout was awarded to Famechon by referee George Smith by the score of 74½ to 73½. Bout held in London, England.

May 9, 1970—Vicente Saldivar of Mexico regained the world featherweight championship, defeating Johnny Famechon of Australia, winning the decision at the end of 15 rounds. Famechon announced his retirement after the loss.

Famechon scaled 124½ and Saldivar 126.

Dec. 11, 1970—Kuniaki Shibata, 126, Japan, halted Vicente Saldivar, 125, Mexico, in the 13th round to win world title. Bout was held in Tijuana, Mexico.

May 19, 1972—Clemente Sanchez, Mexico knocked out Kuniaki Shibata, Japan, at 2:26 of the third round to win the title. Weights, Shibata and Sanchez 126. Bout held in Tokyo, Japan.

Dec. 16, 1972—Clemente Sanchez vacated his title. He no longer could make the weight. W.B.A. recognition given to Ernesto Marcel, Panama: W.B.C. awarded Spain's Jose Legra its crown.

May 31, 1975—Alexis Arguello, Nicaragua won the vacant world title via a TKO at 2:00 of the second round over Panama's Rigoberto Riasco. Arguello also holds a win over the W.B.C. champion Ruben Olivares. Arguello and Riasco weight 126. Referee Ferly Carpentier. Contest was held in Managua, Nicaragua.

June 20, 1977—Alexis Arguello, Nicaragua, give up his title and retired as undefeated champion to move up to the lightweight division. He no longer could make the featherweight limit. See W.B.A. and W.B.C. for their champions. The Ring has the title vacant.

November 5, 1976—Danny Lopez, 124, Los Angeles, Cal., outpointed David (Poison) Kotey, 126, Ghana, over 15 rounds to win the WBC title. Site: Accra, Ghana.

April 15, 1978—Eusebio Pedroza, 126, Panama, TKO'd Cecilio Lastra, 126, Spain, in the 13th round to win the WBA title. Bout held in Panama City. Referee: Larry Rozadilla.

February 2, 1980—Salvador Sanchez, 125¼, Mexico, TKO'd Danny Lopez, 125¾, Los Angeles, Calif., at 0:51 of round 13 in Phoenix, Arizona, to win the WBC title. Waldemar Schmidt, referee.

HISTORY OF THE BANTAMWEIGHT CLASS

No authentic, continuous records of the bantamweight division during London Prize Ring days were ever kept, but it is known that Charley Lynch was American champion in 1856 when he went to England, where he won and lost several battles. He claimed the world bantam title when he defeated Simon Finighty in 43 rounds. Lynch returned home and retired soon afterwards. He was born in New York, weighed 112 pounds and was five feet, four inches in height. The title then lapsed, until claimed in 1887 by Tommy Kelly, the "Harlem Spider." Championship bouts were staged as follows:

During the period from 1870 to 1890 there was much confusion with a number of claims made to the American and World titles. Those whose claims received the most credit were George Siddons in 1870, Tommy Kelly of Boston in 1870, Dick Hollywood in 1871, Tommy (Spider) Kelly of New York in 1887, Hughey Boyle in 1888, Chappie Moran of England in 1889, Cal McCarthy in 1889, Spider Kelly again in 1889, Tim Murphy in 1890, Fred Bogan of Australia in 1890 and then George Dixon in 1890.

May 10, 1888. Tommy Kelly drew with George Dixon at Boston, in 9 rounds. (The weight was 105 pounds, and Dixon's manager, Tom O'Rourke, claimed the bantam crown for the colored lad at that mark, which was afterwards advanced to 112 then to 115 pounds, and finally to the present scaling of 118 pounds.)

June 27, 1890. George Dixon stopped Nunc Wallace at London, England, in 18 rounds. (This was for the world's bantam championship, Wallace scaling 113 against Dixon's 112 pounds.)

Oct. 23, 1890. George Dixon outpointed Johnny Murphy at Providence, R. I., in 40 rounds.

March 31, 1891. George Dixon stopped Cal McCarthy at Troy, N. Y., in 22 rounds.

July 28, 1891. George Dixon knocked out Abe Willis at San Francisco, in 5 rounds. (In the following year Dixon outgrew the bantam grade and entered the featherweight division.)

Sept. 15, 1894. Jimmy Barry knocked out Casper Leon at Lamont, Ill., in 28 rounds. (With this victory, Jimmy Barry claimed the bantam championship, vacant since Dixon relinquished the title in 1892.)

Dec. 6, 1897. Jimmy Barry knocked out Walter Croot at London, England, in 20 rounds. (This bout gave Barry the world's title. Croot died after the knockout, but Barry was exonerated by a coroner's jury.)

Sept. 12, 1899. Terry McGovern knocked out Pedlar Palmer at Tuckahoe, N. Y., in 1 round. (This victory over England's champion gave McGovern the world title, Jimmy Barry having retired undefeated. In 1900 McGovern vacated the bantam title, and joined the featherweight ranks.

March 18, 1901—Harry Harris outpointed Pedlar Palmer at London, England, in 15 rounds. (This was an international match, with the world bantam title at stake, McGovern having entered the featherweight division. Harris also became a featherweight in the year following.)

Jan. 23, 1902. Harry Forbes knocked out Danny Dougherty at St. Louis, in 4 rounds. (Forbes had beaten most of the crack bantams, and his claim to the American title was universally recognized. But in 1903, he beat Andy Tokell in 10 rounds in Detroit, thus winning the world crown, Tokell being the British champion.)

Aug. 13, 1903. Frankie Neil knocked out Harry Forbes at San Francisco, Cal., 2 rounds.

Oct. 17, 1904. Joe Bowker outpointed Frankie Neil at London, England, in 20 rounds. (Bowker, British champion, won the world title, but outgrew the bantam class the same year. Both Digger Stanley of England and Jimmy Walsh of Boston, claimed the title. One was recognized in the U.S. the other in England.)

Oct. 20, 1905. Jimmy Walsh outpointed Digger Stanley at Chelsea, Mass., in 15 rounds. (Walsh claimed the bantamweight title after beating Stanley, England's champion. By 1907 Walsh had outgrown the class.)

In 1908 Kid Murphy claimed the U. S. championship. It was not until 1910, when Johnny Coulon beat Jim Hendrick, British champion in 10 rounds and stopped him in 19 rounds on March 6, 1910, that the international title was at stake and Coulon was accepted as the titleholder since he had whipped Kid Murphy three times previously in U. S. title bouts.

June 9, 1914, Kid Williams knocked out Johnny Coulon at Vernon, Cal., in 3 rounds.

Sept. 10, 1915. Johnny Ertle won from Kid Williams on a foul at St. Paul, Minn., in 5 rounds. (Ertle claimed title, but as decision was a disputed one, his claim was not generally recognized.)

Jan. 9, 1917, Pete Herman outpointed Kid Williams at New Orleans, in 20 rounds. (Herman was recognized by entire press as bantamweight titleholder, and Ertle's claim disallowed.)

Dec. 22, 1920, Joe Lynch outpointed Pete Herman, in Madison Square Garden, in 15 rounds.

July 25, 1921. Pete Herman outpointed Joe Lynch at Ebbets Field, Brooklyn, N.Y., in 15 rounds.

Sept. 23, 1921. Johnny Buff outpointed Pete Herman in Madison Square Garden, in 15 rounds.

July 10, 1922. Joe Lynch knocked out Johnny Buff in New York Velodrome, New York City, in 14 rounds.

March 21, 1924. Abe Goldstein outpointed Joe Lynch in Madison Square Garden, in 15 rounds.

Dec. 19, 1924. Eddie (Cannonball) Martin outpointed Abe Goldstein in Madison Square Garden, in 15 rounds.

March 20, 1925. Charlie (Phil) Rosenberg outpointed Eddie (Cannonball) Martin in Madison Square Garden, in 15 rounds. (Rosenberg was deprived of his title by boxing commission when he was unable to make weight for a scheduled championship bout with Bushy Graham.)

On June 24, 1927, in Chicago, Bud Taylor beat Tony Canzoneri to win N.B.A. recognition. Taylor vacated the N.B.A. title on August 21, 1928.

On May 23, 1928, Bushy Graham outpointed Corp. Izzy Schwartz in fifteen rounds for the N. Y. recognition as world champion. Graham outgrew the class without ever defending the title, and with Taylor having given up his claim, an Al Brown-Vidal Gregorio bout was for worldwide recognition.

June 18, 1929. Al Brown outpointed Vidal Gregario at New York City, in 15 rounds. (This was the outcome of an elimination tourney ordered by the New York State Commission, to determine a successor to Rosenberg, and Al Brown thereby became champion.)

June 1, 1935. Baltazar Sangchili outpointed Al Brown at Valencia, Spain, in 15 rounds.

June 29, 1936. Tony Marino knocked out Baltazar Sangchili at Queensboro Club, New York City, in 14 rounds.

August 31, 1936. Sixto Escobar knocked out Tony Marino at Dykeman Oval, New York City, in 13 rounds.

Sept. 23, 1937. Harry Jeffra outpointed Sixto Escobar at Polo Grounds, New York City, in 15 rounds.

February 20, 1938. Sixto Escobar outpointed Harry Jeffra in Puerto Rico in 15 rounds.

Sixto Escobar retired in 1940. Georgie Pace and Lou Salica were the outstanding contenders. Pace was the N. B. A. champion and Salica had the support of N. Y. and California. They fought and Salica won. By conquering Tommy Forte, he gained international recognition.

Aug. 7, 1942. Lou Salica was outpointed in 12 rounds by Manuel Ortiz, Hollywood, in title bout, Ortiz gaining the title.

In 1943, Ortiz successfully defended his title eight times.

In 1944, Ortiz successfully defended his world crown four times.

In 1945, Ortiz went into the Army and after his discharge, he defended his title successfully three times, all in 1946. His victims were Luis Castillo, whom he knocked out in the 13th round; Kenny Lindsay, whom he stopped in five and Jackie Jurich, whom he halted in 11 rounds.

On January 6, 1947, Ortiz lost his title to Harold Dade via the decision route in 15 rounds at San Francisco.

Ortiz regained the title on March 11, 1947, by winning a 15 round decision from Dade at Los Angeles.

May 31, 1950—Vic Toweel won the title by defeating Manuel Ortiz in 15 rounds at Johannesburg, So. Africa.

Nov. 15, 1952—Jimmy Carruthers won the title by knocking out Vic Toweel in one round at Johannesburg, So. Africa.

Jimmy Carruthers retired as undefeated champion on May 16, 1954, shortly after successfully defending his crown against Chamrern Songkitrat at Bangkok, Thailand.

Sept. 19, 1954—Robert Cohen defeated Chamrern Songkitrat, 15 rounds, for the vacant bantamweight championship, at Bangkok, Thailand.

June 29, 1956—Mario D'Agata won title by halting Robert Cohen in sixth round at Rome, Italy.

April 1, 1957—Alphonse Halimi won the title by decisioning Mario D'Agata, 15 rounds, at Paris, France.

July 8, 1959—Joe Becerra won the title by knocking out Alphonse Halimi in 3 rounds at Los Angeles, Calif.

Becerra announced his retirement on August 30, 1960 after being stopped in the eighth round of a non-title bout by Eloy Sanchez in Juarez, Mexico.

The National Boxing Association and the European Boxing Union arranged eliminations to decide Becerra's successor. On October 15, 1960, Alphonse Halimi of France gained the decision, in London, over Freddie Gilroy of Ireland, to win the European title. In Los Angeles on November 18, 1960, Eder Jofre of Brazil knocked out Eloy Sanchez of Mexico in the sixth round to win the American title.

Though the winners were to clash for the world championship, Halimi refused to accept Jofre and because of his refusal to fight the Brazilian, a match was arranged with Piero Rollo, champion of Italy, sanctioned by the Italian Federation, as a title bout. Rollo was stopped in the tenth round at Rio de Janeiro, March 25, 1961, and Jofre was acknowledged world title holder by the N.B.A., New York State, the South American Federation and Ring Magazine.

On May 30, 1961, Halimi was outpointed by Johnny Caldwell of Ireland who was given recognition by the European Boxing Union.

January 18, 1962—Eder Jofre gained international recognition by knocking out Johnny Caldwell in the tenth round at Sao Paulo, Brazil.

May 17, 1965—Fighting Harada defeated Eder Jofre by a decision in 15 rounds in Tokyo, to win the bantam title.

February 26, 1968—Lionel Rose, Australia, 117¾, beat Fighting Harada, Japan, 118, to win the world bantamweight crown by a unanimous decision in 15 rounds. The fight was held in Tokyo.

Referee Ko Toyama scored it 72—71, Judge Hiroyuki Tezaki, 72—69 and Judge Ken Morita, 72—70, all for Rose. The attendance was 7,000.

Aug. 22, 1969—Ruben Olivares, 118, Mexico kayoed Lionel Rose, 118, Australia at 2:24 of the fifth round to win the world title in Los Angeles, Calif. The referee was Larry Rozadilla. Att.—17,000.

October 16, 1970—Chucho Castillo, Mexico, stopped Ruben Olivares, Mexico in the 14th round to win the title. Bout held in Los Angeles, Calif. Weights: Olivares—118, Castillo—118. Referee Dick Young stopped the bout at 2:27 of the 14th round on the recommendation of the ring physician.

April 2, 1971—Mexico's Ruben Olivares regained the crown with a 15-round decision over Chucho Castillo at Los Angeles, Calif. Both fighters weight 117.

March 19, 1972—Rafael Herrera, Mexico won the title, stopping Ruben Olivares at 1:28 of the 8th round. Weights, both 118. Contest held at Mexico City.

July 30, 1972—Enrique Pinder, Panama, decisioned Rafael Herrera, Mexico to win the world title in 15 rds. Pinder 118, Herrera 117½. Bout held in Panama City, Panama.

January 20, 1973—Romeo Anaya, Mexico kayoed Enrique Pinder, Panama in the third round. Bout held in Panama City, Panama. Anaya and Pinder both weighed 118.

November 3, 1973—Arnold Taylor, South Africa halted Romeo Anaya, Mexico, in the 13th round. Contest held in Johannesburg, South Africa. Taylor 114, Anaya 117 ¾.

July 3, 1974—Soo Hwang Hong, Korea outpointed Arnold Taylor, South Africa, in 15 rounds to win the bantamweight crown. Contest was held in Durban, South Africa. Taylor—117, Hong—118.

March 15, 1975—Alfonso Zamora became the youngest bantamweight to win the title with his kayo over Soo Hwan Hong at 2:34 of 4th round. Contest held at Los Angeles, Calif. Zamora and Hong 118. Referee George Latka.

November 19, 1977—Jorge Lujan, Panama, 117, won the title from Alfonso Zamora, Mexico, 118, via kayoed in the 10th round. The bout held in Los Angeles, Calif. Referee John Thomas.

June 2, 1979—Guadalupe (Lupe) Pintor, 118, Mexico, won a split decision over Carlos Zarate, 117½, Mexico, to win the WBC title. Site: Las Vegas, Nev. Referee: Mills Lane.

August 29, 1980—Julian Solis, 117¾, Puerto Rico, won a split decision over Jorge Lujan, 118, Panama, for the world crown in Miami Beach, Florida. Jimmy Rondeau, referee.

November 14, 1980—Jeff Chandler, 118, Philadelphia, Pa., TKO'd Julian Solis, 117½, Puerto Rico, at 1:05 of the 14th round in Miami, Florida, to win the world title. Carlos Berrocal, referee.

HISTORY OF THE FLYWEIGHT CLASS

The flyweight class was created in England during 1910, when it was given official recognition, with the scaling mark set at 108 pounds. Prior to this the smallest of the small battlers had to do the best they could against the 118 pounders of the bantam division. America followed suit the same year by recognizing the flyweight grade. The first championship fight at the weight brought together Jimmy Wilde of England, and Young Zulu Kid, of the U. S. A. Battles staged were as follows:

Dec. 18, 1916—Jimmy Wilde knocked out Young Zulu Kid, at London, England, in 11 rounds.

Feb. 11, 1921—Johnny Buff outpointed Frankie Mason at New Orleans, in 15 rounds.

(This was for American flyweight title.)

Sept. 14, 1922—Pancho Villa knocked out Johnny Buff, at Ebbets Field, Brooklyn, in 11 rounds.

March 1, 1923—Frankie Genaro outpointed Pancho Villa at Madison Square Garden, New York City, in 15 rounds.

June 18, 1923—Pancho Villa knocked out Jimmy Wilde at Polo Grounds, New York City, in 7 rounds.

(Villa was recognized as world's flyweight champion, although he had lost a decision to Frankie Genaro. Villa died in July, 1925, and Genaro claimed the title.)

August 22, 1925—Fidel La Barba outpointed Frankie Genaro at Los Angeles, Cal., in 10 rounds.

(La Barba was recognized as world flyweight champion, but temporarily retired from the ring in 1927.)

Dec. 16, 1927—Corporal Izzy Schwartz outpointed Newsboy Brown at New York City, in 15 rounds.

(Schwartz was recognized as flyweight champion by the New York State Commission, but conditions in the class became completely confused, and did not become stabilized until the commission staged an elimination tourney at the beginning of November, 1929.)

Feb. 6, 1928—Genaro gained N. B. A. recognition by outpointing Frenchy Belanger, 10 rounds, at Toronto, Canada.

Mar. 2, 1929—Emile (Spider) Pladner kayoed Genaro in one round at Paris, France, in a bout advertised as for the world title.

Mar. 20, 1929—With Pladner having defeated Izzy Schwartz, recognized by the New York Commission; Genaro, recognized by the N. B. A.; and Johnny Hill, the European champion the International Boxing Union officially recognized Emile as the world champion.

Apr. 18, 1929—Frankie Genaro won from Pladner on a foul, 5 rounds, in Paris, France, in a bout advertised as for the world title.

March 21, 1930—Midget Wolgast outpointed Black Bill at New York City, in 15 rounds.

(This was the finals of the elimination tourney ordered by the New York State Commission, which thus recognized Wolgast as champion of the flyweights.)

Dec. 26, 1930—Frankie Genaro and Midget Wolgast fought a draw at New York City, in 15 rounds.

(Genaro was the National Boxing Association champion. Both claimed the title.)

Oct. 26, 1931—Young Perez knocked out Frankie Genaro at Paris, France, in 2 rounds.

(The bout was staged at the title limit, and Perez was recognized by the I. B. U. of Europe as world title holder.)

Oct. 31, 1932—Jackie Brown knocked out Young Perez at Manchester, England, in 13 rounds, and Brown was recognized throughout Europe as title holder.

Sept. 16, 1935—Small Montana, Philippines, outpointed Midget Wolgast at Oakland, Cal., in 10 rounds.

(This bout was advertised as being for world flyweight championship, and Montana claimed the title. This, however, was erroneous, as only the American title was at stake.)

Sept. 8, 1935—Benny Lynch knocked out Jackie Brown at Manchester, England, in 2 rounds and was generally accepted as world title holder.

Jan. 19, 1937—Benny Lynch outpointed Small Montana at London, England, in 15 rounds to gain international recognition.

June 29, 1938—Lynch retired from the class after his fight with Jackie Jurich, in Paisley, Scotland, because he was far overweight and was ruled out by the British Board of Boxing Control.

September 22, 1938—Jackie Jurich U.S., went to England to fight Peter Kane for what the British recognized as a world title bout, though Jurich was not the U.S. champion at the time. He was defeated by Kane in 15 rounds.

In America, the dispute between Jurich and Montana as to the U.S. championship, was decided on March 3, 1939, when Montana was knocked out in the 7th round at Hollywood. Then on October 4, Jurich again beat Montana, this time in 10 rounds at Oakland, and Jurich became the undisputed U.S. title holder of the flyweight division.

On September 22, 1939, when Jurich drew with Little Dado, who had beaten Montana at the flyweight limit on November 30, 1938. Jurich claimed the title as Dado no longer could make the weight.

Dado, following his victory over Montana, was matched to fight Enrico Urbinati of Italy for the vacant world title, but the outbreak of World War II cancelled out this match and the N.B.A. gave him its backing as champion although Montana still claimed the title.

Kane's record was so far superior to that of Jurich or Montana, that he was generally recognized as world champion, especially because only three months before Lynch's retirement, Peter had fought Lynch a draw in 12 rounds, as the weight.

When World War II started, Kane was forced into temporary retirement after he had given up the flyweight title to enter the bantam class. Thus, in 1942, the title of world flyweight champion was vacant.

On June 19, 1943, Jackie Paterson knocked out Peter Kane in one round in Scotland to gain international recognition as world champion.

On July 10, 1946 Paterson successfully defended his title when he defeated Joe Curran in 15 rounds.

On Oct. 20, 1947, Rinty Monaghan defeated Dado Marino in London in 15 rounds to win N.B.A. recognition as title holder after Paterson had failed to go through with contest he had arranged with Marino for the title. Paterson however, was still recognized as world champion by the British Board.

On March 23, 1948, Monaghan stopped Paterson at Belfast in 7 rounds to win the crown.

With Rinty Monaghan retired, on April 25, 1950, Terry Allen won the vacant crown by defeating Honore Pratesi over 15 rounds at Harringay Arena, London, England.

August 1, 1950—Dado Marino won the title, outpointing Terry Allen over 15 rounds at Honolulu, Hawaii.

May 19, 1952—Yoshio Shirai won a 15-round decision over Dado Marino to gain the title, Korakuen Stadium, Tokyo, Japan.

Nov. 26, 1954—Pascual Perez defeated Yoshio Shirai, Korakuen Stadium, Tokyo, Japan, 15 rounds. Major John Sullivan, referee.

April 16, 1960—Pone Kingpetch won the title by a split 15-round decision over Pascual Perez at Bangkok, Thailand.

Oct. 10, 1962—Fighting Harada won the title by knocking out Pone Kingpetch in 2:59 of the 11-round at Tokyo, Japan.

January 12, 1963—Pone Kingpetch became the first to regain the flyweight title when he dicisioned Fighting Harada over 15 rounds at Bangkok, Thailand.

September 18, 1963—Hiroyuki Ebihara won the title when he knocked out Pone Kingpetch in 2:07 of the first round at Tokyo, Japan.

January 23, 1964—Pone Kingpetch regained the title when he decisioned Hiroyuki Ebihara over 15 rounds at Bangkok, Thailand.

April 23, 1965—Salvatore Burruni won a unanimous decision over Pone Kingpetch in a bout of 15 rounds in Rome, winning the flyweight title.

June 14, 1966—Walter McGowan, Scotland, defeated Salvatore Burruni, Italy, at Tokyo in 15 rounds by a unanimous decision. McGowan, 111¾; Burruni, 110.

Dec. 30, 1966—Walter McGowan, Scotland, was stopped by Chartchai Chionoi of Thailand in nine rounds at Bangkok. McGowan, 110; Chionoi, 111.

Feb. 23, 1969—Efren Torres, 111, Mexico, stopped Chartchai Chionoi, 110, Thailand, in the eighth round to win the world title. The bout was held in Mexico City, Mexico. The referee was Arthur Mercante.

March 20, 1970—Chartchai Chionoi, Thailand, regained his title by outpointing Efren Torres, Mexico in 15 rounds at Bangkok, Thailand. Weights: Chionoi—112, Torres—112.

Dec. 7, 1970—Erbito Salvarria, 111¼, Philippines kayoed Chartchai Chionoi, 111¼, Thailand, in second round. Bout held in Bangkok, Thailand.

February 9, 1973—Venice Borkorsor, Thailand won a 15-round decision over Erbito Salvarria, Philippines. Contest held in Bangkok, Thailand. Borkorsor 111 and Salvarria 110.

July 10, 1973—Venice Borkorsor. Thailand gave up his world flyweight crown. He moved up to the bantamweight division.

January 8, 1975—Miguel Canto, Mexico, won the vacant title via 15 round majority decision over Japan's Shoji Oguma (W.B.C. Champion) at the time of the contest, they were ranked 1 & 2. Contest was held in Sendai, Japan. Weights, both 111. Referee Jay Edson.

March 18, 1979—Chan-Hee Park, 112, Korea, won a unanimous decision over Miguel Canto, 111, Mexico, to take the WBC title in Pusan, Korea. The referee was Rudy Ortega.

November 17, 1979—Luis Ibarra, 110½, Panama, won a unanimous decision over Betulio Gonzales, 110, Venezuela to take WBA title. Site: Maracay, Venezuela. Referee: Ernesto Magana.

February 16, 1980—Tae-Shik Kim, 111¾, Korea, knocked out Luis Ibarra, 110¾, Panama, in 1:50 of the second round in Seoul, Korea, for the WBA title. Servio Tulio Lay, referee.

May 18, 1980—Shoji Oguma, 111¾, Japan, won the world title by kayoing Chan-Hee Park, also 111¾, Korea, in 0:53 of the ninth round in Seoul, Korea. Harold Nadaya, referee.

December 13, 1980—Peter Mathebula, 112, South Africa, won the WBA title with a split decision over Tae-Shik Kim, 111, Korea, in Los Angeles, Calif. Terry Smith, referee.

March 28, 1981—Santos Laciar, 111¾, Argentina, won the WBA title by stopping Peter Mathebula, 111, South Africa, at 2:02 of the seventh round in Orlando, Soweto, South Africa.

May 12, 1981—Antonio Avelar, 111¼, Mexico, won the world title by knocking out Shoji Oguma, 112, Japan, in 0:56 of the seventh round in Mito City, Japan.

June 6, 1981—Luis Ibarra, 111¾, Panama, won the WBA crown with a unanimous decision over Santos Laciar, 112, Argentina, in Buenos Aires, Argentina.

September 26, 1981—Juan Herrera, 111¾, Mexico, won the WBA title by knocking out Luis Ibarra, 112, Panama, in 2:28 of round 11 in Merida, Yucatan, Mexico.

OFFICIAL COMMISSION RULES & REGULATIONS

World Boxing Association

CONSTITUTION

ARTICLE I
Title

The Association hereinafter constituted shall be known as The World Boxing Association.

ARTICLE II
Objects and Purposes

The World Boxing Association is a voluntary Association organized by representatives of various athletic commissions for the purpose of assuring greater efficiency and uniformity in the supervision of professional boxing; and for more effective control and regulation of professional boxing; and to encourage and assist professional boxing throughout the world. For purposes of effective control, supervision, and regulation of professional boxing, the world is divided into four regions, namely: 1. North America, 2. Latin America, 3. Europe (including Africa) and 4. The Orient (including Australia and New Zealand). It shall also encourage and inspire a greater public appreciation of boxing on all levels as an international sport and as a builder of character and body. The activites of said association shall include:

a. The World Boxing Association shall receive from its members and other athletic commissions the results of professional boxing contests promptly after they are held; shall receive notice of all actions of such commissions suspending or revoking the licenses of professional boxers because of impaired physical condition, promptly following the taking of such action; and shall receive from its members and other athletic commissions notice of actions of such commissions suspending in revoking the licenses of professional boxers, managers, seconds, promoters, officials and other licensees, because of conduct detrimental to honestly conducted professional boxing and shall assemble and circulate all such information through regular bulletins among its members.

b. The members of the World Boxing Association shall recognize and uphold any actions taken by a member commission, as provided for in Paragraph (a) above; provided further, that any person aggrieved thereby shall have the right to appeal therefrom to the Committee on Grievances and Appeals of the World Boxing Association, as provided for in the By-laws of this organization.

c. The World Boxing Association shall establish its champions and ratings in each weight division of up to ten boxers in such division, with all such boxers being designated as "outstanding contenders," at least four times each year; and shall make such ratings available not only to its members and other athletic commissions, but to the public press and all other interested persons.

d. The World Boxing Association shall from time to time promulgate suggested rules and standards for boxing guidance and for the scoring of boxing contests which may be acceptable for universal adoption, and shall encourage a unity of action thereon.

e. The World Boxing Association shall provide championship belts or other suitable emblems or certifications to be awarded holders of championship titles in established weight classes, as recognized by it.

f. The World Boxing Association shall encourage and assist the sport of boxing throughout the world, and shall strive to improve the public relations of the sport through educational means.

g. The World Boxing Association shall encourage the use of the sport as a conditioner and a developer of physical fitness, and as an effective offset to the increase of passive activities and entertainment which have adversely affected physical fitness.

h. The World Boxing Association shall, so far as the law may permit, acquire, purchase, lease or otherwise obtain for its use, any real and personal property, and also sell, lease, invest, deal with or otherwise dispose of for its benefit any such real or personal property.

i. The World Boxing Association shall do all other lawful things necessary, incidental or conducive to the attainment of the foregoing objects and purposes.

ARTICLE III
Membership and Voting Qualifications

The Athletic Commission, or any other duly authorized body legally organized to regulate, control or supervise boxing in any country, territorial or political subdivision, province or city thereof, seeking affiliation, shall be eligible for membership in the World Boxing Association.

Each member, athletic commission, or any other duly authorized body legally organized to regulate, control or supervise boxing, in attendance at the annual conventions of the World Boxing Association, in good standing, shall be entitled to one vote.

Any state of the United States or any country which does not have a state or country-wide law creating a state or national commission, but contains more than one local commission, shall be entitled to one vote; and when, at any annual convention, more than one local commission shall designate a spokesman for the purpose of casting the vote, as herein provided; with more than one commission present from a state or country, such groups must caucus in advance and by majority vote decide their one vote; provided, however, that any province, state, or similar political subdivision of any eligible country shall be entitled to one vote under the same basis as any state of the United States.

Each Past President shall be an honorary member of the World Boxing Association, and is invited to attend all Executive Committee meetings and Conventions of the World Boxing Association, where he will be accorded the full courtesy of the floor.

ARTICLE IV
Officers and Committee Chairmen

The Officers of the World Boxing Association shall consist of a President, four Vice-Presidents, four Regional Vice Presidents, an International Commissioner, an Executive Secretary, a Treasurer, an International Legal Advisor an International Medical Advisor, an International Coordinator, and four Members. All such Officers, with the exception of the Executive Secretary, the International Legal Advisor and the International Medical Advisor, shall be elected by majority vote at the Annual Convention; provided that the four Regional Vice-Presidents shall be elected each from the four Regions by majority vote at the Annual Convention from among the nominees nominated by the delegates from their respective Regions.

The President shall appoint the Executive Secretary, the International Legal Advisor and the International Medical Advisor.

All the Officers and Committee Chairmen of the World Boxing Association shall be at the time of their election or appointment be members, including, Commissioner, or Secretary of an active national, state, city or province Boxing Commission, the said Commission being also a dues-paying member in good standing of the World Boxing Association. The International Medical Advisor, the International Legal Advisor, the International Commissioner and the Executive Secretary need not necessarily be members of a dues-paying Commission.

All the elected Officers shall hold office for one year, or until their successors have been duly elected or qualified.

ARTICLE V
Government

In the interim between the annual Conventions, the administration of the affairs of the Association shall be conducted by the officers, subject to the direction of the Executive Committee.

This committee shall consist of the President, the immediate Past President of the association, four Vice-Presidents, four Regional Vice-Presidents, International Commissioner, Executive Secretary, Treasurer, International Legal Advisor, International Medical Advisor, International Coordinator, Chairman of the World Championships Regulations Committee, Chairman of the Rating Committee, and three additional members in good standing to be elected by the Association.

The administration of the affairs of each region shall be conducted by the respective regional Vice-President.

The regional Vice-President, with the authorization of the Executive Committee, shall have the duty and power to divide the countries of his region into districts, and provide for the district elections of officers and district meetings.

ARTICLE VI
Finance

The membership dues shall be uniform and established annually by a Budget Committee appointed by the President, and the report of the Budget Committee shall be presented to the convention annually for action. The Treasurer shall automatically be a member of the Budget and Finance Committee. It shall also be the duty of the Budget and Finance Committee to prepare and submit an annual budget to the convention for approval; provided, however, that in case the convention fails to approve a new budget, the approved budget of the preceding year shall be deemed in force and effect.

All disbursements of funds of the association shall be made through the President and Treasurer pursuant to the approved budget.

The fiscal year for payment of dues shall be the same as the calendar year.

ARTICLE VII
Meeting of the Association

The Annual Meetings of the Association shall be held during the month of August or September of each year. If a place should not be designated in regular convention assembled, a Convention Committee shall be appointed by the President, which shall make the necessary arrangements, subject to the approval of the Executive Committee.

At all meetings of the Association, a quorum shall consist of one-third of the qualified members registered in attendance.

At all meetings of the Association, the following shall be the order of business:

1. Roll call of Delegates, and report of Credentials' Committee.
2. Reading of Minutes.
3. Officers' Reports.
4. Reports of Committees.
5. Unfinished Business.
6. Resolutions and New Business.
7. Election of Officers.
8. Adjournment.

The President shall have the power and authority both at annual meetings and at meetings of the Executive Committee to call executive sessions.

All meetings of the Association shall be conducted pursuant to Robert's Rules of Order, Revised.

ARTICLE VIII
Conflict with Local Laws

No provision of this Constitution shall be binding upon any member Commission in the event the same are inconsistent with or contrary to the Laws of the State, Province, Territory, County, Parish, City or Country of said Member Commission, except that the Rules and Regulations that govern World Championship Fights adopted by the World Boxing Association shall be obligatory and binding in all World Boxing Association's sanctioned fights and shall prevail over local Rules and Regulations.

Any request to sanction a World Championship fight shall be accompanied by a binding statement that the fight will be governed by the W.B.A. World Championship Rules and Regulations.

ARTICLE IX
Amendments

No amendments shall be made to the Constitution except at the annual meeting and by two-thirds vote of the qualified members present and voting. All proposed amendments shall be first presented to the Legislative Committee in writing at least thirty days before the annual meeting. The Legislative Committee shall forward to the Executive Secretary of the Association a copy of all such proposed amendments, together with its report on the same, at least twenty days before the annual meeting. The Executive Secretary, thereupon, shall mail to each member commission of the Association a copy of all such proposed amendments at least fifteen days before the annual meeting.

Election of Officers

The officers of the World Boxing Association shall consist of a President, four Vice-Presidents, four Regional Vice-Presidents, an International Commissioner, an Executive-Secretary, a Treasurer, an International Legal Advisor, an International Medical Advisor, an International Coordinator and four members. All of such officers, with the exception of the Executive Secretary, the International Legal Advisor the International Medical Advisor and the inmediate Past President, shall be elected by majority vote at the Annual Conventions; provided that the four regional Vice-Presidents shall be elected each from the four regions by majority vote at the annual conventions from among the nominees nominated by the delegates from the respective regions. The Executive-Secretary, the International Legal Advisor and the International Medical Advisor shall be appointed by the President.

Duties of Officers

The President shall preside at all meetings of the Association, and shall perform such other duties as appertain to the office of the President. The Vice-Presidents, in the order of their election shall have all the powers and perform all the duties of the President in his absence or inability to perform the same.

The regional Vice-President shall administer the affairs of his respective region, and shall preside at its meetings. He shall be automatically a Member of the World Championships Committee and the Ratings Committee.

The International Commissioner shall be a Past President of the Association. He shall advise and counsel the President and other officers, and shall serve as a member of the Executive Committee.

The Executive-Secretary shall keep the records of the Association, conduct all the official correspondence, issue notice of all meetings of the Association, keep a complete record of all contests and exhibitions held under the auspices of the Commission members of the Association, and perform such other duties as may be prescribed by the Constitution and By-Laws of the Association.

The Treasurer shall receive all monies of the Association and pay all bills approved by the President of the Association subject to the provisions of the budget: provided that necessary minor expenses which may necessarily be paid by any Committee may be turned into the Treasurer as cash if recorded in detail, duly attested by such Committee and approved by the Association. He shall, when required by the Association or its Executive Committee, submit and turn over to said Association or Committee all moneys, accounts, books, papers, vouchers, and records appertaining to his office, and shall turn the same over to his successor, when elected. He shall at each Annual Meeting render a complete report of the Association's finances. He shall be bonded (at the expense of the Association) in a sum to be fixed by the Association of not less than $5,000.00.

Committees

At the annual meeting of the World Boxing Association the President shall appoint a credentials committee consisting of the Treasurer, Chairman of the Legislative Committee, and three other members in attendance in good standing. The President shall designate one of same as chairman. At the opening session of the Association the committee shall certify to the Association the names of the states, countries, provinces, cities, or their political subdivisions qualified to participate and vote at such meeting, duly authorized body organized to regulate and supervise boxing, being represented at such annual meeting.

Following each Annual Meeting of the Association, the President shall appoint the following Committees: World Championship, Ratings, Legislative, Grievances and Appeals, Public Relations, Rules, Nominating, Budget and Finance and such other committees as he may deem advisable.

The World Championship Committee shall have the duty and power to enforce the rules and regulations on World Championship contests.

The Ratings Committee shall prepare ratings of the boxers in each weight division, in accordance with the provisions of Article II, Section (c) of the Constitution of this Association.

The Legislative Committee shall have the duty of studying all proposed amendments to the Constitution and By-Laws of this Association, and make its report in accordance with Article IX of the Constitution; but this provision shall not prevent the Association from acting upon any amendment of which legal notice has been given if the Committee fails to consider the same and report on it.

The Committee on Grievances and Appeals shall, whenever called upon, hear and consider all complaints, protests or appeals from the actions of the various Commission members, in accordance with Article II, Section (a) of the Constitution of the Association.

"The Budget and Finance Committee shall consider the anticipated revenue of the Association, along with the cost of overall operation, and prepare a budget for the ensuing year to be voted on at each annual convention of the Association".

The Nominating Committee shall have the duty of submitting to the membership of the Association, after consideration of their respective qualifications, a list of recommended nominees for election to the various elective offices of the Association. Such list shall be completed and submitted by mail to all members of the Association in good standing not later than thirty days prior to the date fixed for the opening of the Annual Meeting to the Association at which such election is intended to take place. The submission of such recommendations for elections to the various offices of the Association shall not preclude nomination from the floor of other individuals for the same respective offices.

The duties of the other Committees shall be such as may be assigned to them by the President.

Voting

At the Annual Meetings of the Association, voting on all matters requiring a vote shall be determined by the majority of those present and qualified to vote, with the exception of votes to amend the Constitution or By-Laws, which shall require a two-thirds majority.

Member commissions, and new commissions shall have the right to attend, vote and become certified at the annual convention providing said committees have paid the required dues at least 60 days prior to August 1st. Such members must be certified by their respective commissions or the Chairman of the Credentials Committee at the annual W.B.A. convention. However, former member commissions in order to be eligible to attend must have paid all outstanding dues.

When any matter is to be voted upon in the Convention, any member present and qualified to cast a vote may call for the Ayes and Noes. If the call is sustained by one-fifth of the qualified voters present, the roll shall be called and the vote tabulated by the Ayes and Noes accordingly.

When two or more offices are to be filled, balloting shall be for the number of candidates necessary to fill the required number of offices. Any Ballot not containing the required number shall be void.

A member of the World Boxing Association must be present at the annual meeting to cast a vote. No proxy voting shall be allowed.

In the interim between the Annual Conventions, the administration of the affairs of the Association shall be conducted by the Executive Committee as provided for in Article V of the Constitution. The President may at any time call for a vote by mail or telegraph of the Executive Committee. Any vote by the Executive Committee to be effective must be by a majority vote of the whole Committee.

Suspensions, Fines, Revocations

The members of the Association shall submit a weekly list of the orders of suspensions, fines and revocations entered by their respective bodies, together with a brief statement of the case, to the Executive-Secretary of the Association, who shall compile the same into a bulletin and mail to the entire membership of the Association monthly, or sooner if possible.

The members of the Association, where consistent with the law governing their respective jurisdictions, in consonance with the fundamental purpose of the World Boxing Association to act for mutual benefit and for the good of boxing, shall refuse to permit any person or persons so reported to compete or officiate in or act at any boxing contest in the state, territory, province, country, parish, county or city under their jurisdiction until such time as the period of suspension has been set aside by the Commission, board or body entering the original order, or a new finding developed by the Committee on Grievances and Appeals.

Championships

All World Championship Contests recognized by the World Boxing Association shall be governed by the World Championships Regulations as are now in effect, or which may be adopted by the Association.

Any boxer recognized as a World Champion in his respective class by the World Boxing Association shall defend his Championship as required by, and in accordance with, the World Championship Regulations of the Association.

Enforcement of World Championship Regulations shall be the responsibility of the World Championships Committee. This Committee shall maintain strict surveillance over all Championship contests sanctioned by the Association thereby assuring that all Championship contests are conducted properly and in accordance with World Boxing Association Regulations.

Every decision of the Championship Committee within the scope of World Championship Regulations shall be final and universally binding throughout the Association, unless the Executive Committee shall vote to hear an appeal therefrom, and having heard such appeal shall vote to amend, or reverse the decision of the Championship Committee. No appeal from any decision of the Championship Committee shall be considered by the Executive Committee unless it shall be filed in writing and received in the office of the President within thirty (30) days following the date of the decision of the Championship Committee.

For each World Championship Contest the promoter of such contest shall obtain a Sanction from the Association and a regulatory fee shall be paid to the Association in accordance with the following scale:

Jr. Flyweight	$200.00
Flyweight	$200.00
Bantamweight	$200.00
Jr. Featherweight	$200.00
Featherweight	$200.00
Jr. Lightweight	$200.00
Lightweight	$200.00
Jr. Welterweight	$200.00
Welterweight	$200.00
Jr. Middleweight	$200.00
Middleweight	$200.00
Light Heavyweight	$200.00
Heavyweight	$500.00

Sanction fees shall be paid over to the WBA member Athletic Commission, or other WBA member body legally organized to regulate, supervise and control professional boxing in the jurisdiction in which the Championship contest is held and it shall be forwarded promptly to the Chairman of the Championship Committee. Copies of contracts, filed and approved by the local commission, between promoters and contestants must accompany all requests for Sanction of Championship contests.

The Chairman of the Championship Committee shall be responsible for the collection of all Sanction fees and upon receipt of such fees the same shall be forwarded to the Treasurer of the Association.

Amendments

No Amendment shall be made to the By-Laws except at the Annual Meeting and by two-thirds of the qualified members present and voting. All proposed Amendments shall be first presented to the Legislative Committee in writing at least thirty days before the Annual Meeting. The Legislative Committee shall forward to the Executive-Secretary of the Association a copy of all such proposed Amendments, together with its report on the same, at least twenty days before the Annual Meeting. The Executive-Secretary thereupon shall mail to each member Commission a copy of all such proposed Amendments, at least fifteen days before the Annual Meeting. The Association at its annual Convention can at any time by a suspension of the rules hear and enact Amendments by unanimous consent.

WORLD CHAMPIONSHIPS REGULATIONS

The World Boxing Association, composed not of individuals but of legally constituted governing bodies of the sport throughout the world, stands as the most representative and influential force in professional boxing.

Keenly aware of the responsibility concomitant with its stature, the Association has resolved, in adopting and implementing the World Championships Regulations set forth in this publication, to assume firm, intelligent, and objectively administered control of the World Championships of boxing insofar as these and their holders shall be recognized within the territory of its members.

The World Championships have been established for generations as the great, ultimate professional objectives in boxing. But no World Championship has ever been or can be the personal property of any boxer.

The tenure of a champion is and must be a trusteeship, subject to the terms of a trust hereinafter for the first time fully defined, for the use and benefit of all those boxers and followers of boxing who by their contributions of time, effort, risk, and resources sustain the profession in existence.

A World Champion, as recognized by the World Boxing Association, stands supreme in his class and is ready at all times to contend with any qualified challenger.

The World Boxing Association in recognizing a boxer as World Champion enjoins him to set a champion's example in high ideals and sportsmanship in the belief that, while a World Champion is not greater than the sport in which he reached the pinnacle of success, no sport can rise above the level of those who take part in it.

It is to such boxers and boxing followers of good will that these regulations, herewith directed to the World Championship Committee for enforcement, are sincerely dedicated.

1) The within Regulations shall govern World Championship Contests of professional boxing as determined and recognized by the World Boxing Association.

2) Championship Regulations Committee

This Committee shall be composed of seven (7) members which shall include the President of the Association and the International Commissioner, both Ex-Officio, and five (5) members, including the Chairman, all of whom shall be appointed by the President of the Association, subject to the approval of the Executive Committee, within fifteen days following adjournment of the annual convention of the Association. Following their respective appointments, members of the Committee shall serve until their successors have been appointed and approved. Vacancies occuring on the Committee shall be filled by the President of the Association, subject to the approval of the Executive Committee.

3) Meeting of the Committee

The Committee shall meet at such times and places as the Chairman, or the President of the Association shall designate. Four (4) members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting of the Committee and a majority vote of the members present and voting on any motion shall be sufficient for a decision. In the event an important decision must be reached and a meeting of the Committee cannot be held, the Committee is empowered to reach a decision by mail, telephone, or telegraph vote, when so requested by the President of the Association or the Chairman of the Committee. When a vote is taken by telephone, telegraph, or by mail, a majority vote of the entire Committee shall be required for a decision, and such vote shall be confirmed in writing forthwith by such voting member.

4) Weight Classes

World Championships shall be recognized in the following weight classes:

Jr. Flyweight	Not over 108 lbs.-48.988 Kgs.
Flyweight	Not over 112 lbs.-50.802 Kgs.
Bantamweight	Not over 118 lbs.-53.524 Kgs.
Jr. Featherweight .	Not over 122 lbs.-55.338 Kgs.
Featherweight	Not over 126 lbs.-57.153 Kgs.
Jr. Lightweight ...	Not over 130 lbs.-58.967 Kgs.
Lightweight	Not over 135 lbs.-61.235 Kgs.
Jr. Welterweight ..	Not over 140 lbs.-63.503 Kgs.
Welterweight	Not over 147 lbs.-66.678 Kgs.

Jr. Middleweight . Not over 154 lbs.-69.853 Kgs.
Middleweight .... Not over 160 lbs.-72.574 Kgs.
Lt. Heavyweight . Not over 175 lbs.-79.378 Kgs.
Heavyweight .... Any over 175 lbs.-79.378 Kgs.

5) Weight

Weight determines Championships and if a World Champion shall fail to make the prescribed weight for his class at the official weigh-in time on the day of a Championship contest, his Title shall be forfeited on the scales. The contest, however, may be staged as scheduled and if the challenger, having made the prescribed weight, shall win he shall succeed to the Championship; but if the erstwhile Champion shall win, the Championship shall be declared vacant. If the Champion makes the weight and the Challenger fails to do so, the Champion, whether he wins or loses the bout, retains his title. If either Champion or Challenger fails to make prescribed weight at the official weigh-in time either or each have two hours thereafter to make the prescribed weight. In the event either or both contestants fail to make the prescribed weight within the two hours additional time, this regulation shall remain in full force and effect and the bout shall proceed as a non-title match. The scales to be used in the official weigh-in must be made available to both Champion and Challenger at least two hours prior to the official weight-in time.

6) Defense of Title

Each World Champion so recognized by the World Boxing Association in his respective weight class from Junior Flyweight to Light Heavyweight, both inclusive, shall defend his Championship within six (6) months after its acquisition by him in a contest scheduled for fifteen (15) rounds to a decision, against a Challenger-contender approved by the Committee from the ten (10) highest ranked boxers in his class in accordance with the current rating list of the Association.

In the interim periods of said (6) six months the World Champion may defend his championship title against any opponents selected from the ten highest ranked boxers in his class in accordance with the current rating list of the Association, however, should the World Champion lose his title against an opponent other than the leading available contender, the new World Champion shall be required to make his first title defense against the leading available contender, on his weight class in accordance with the current rating list of the Association, within a period of ninety (90) days after the acquisition of this title thereafter throughout the Champion's reign as World Champion he shall defend his Championship within intervals of no more than six (6) months against the leading available contender in his weight class in accordance with the current rating list of the Association.

Because of circumstances inherent in, and peculiar to the promotion of major Heavyweight Championship contest, the World Heavyweight Champion shall defend his Championship within one (1) year after its acquisition by him in a contest scheduled for fifteen (15) rounds to a decision, against the leading available contender approved by the Championship Committee. Thereafter, throughout the Heavyweight Champion's reign as World Champion he shall defend his Championship within intervals of no more than nine (9) months against the leading available contender in the Heavyweight Division as designated by the Championship Committee. In the interim period, the Heavyweight World Champion may enter into any contest, with any Heavyweight contender rated in the first ten (10) by the World Boxing Association, subject to the approval of the Championship Committee.

For the purpose of Championship contests and Title defenses by recognized World Champions as defined in these Regulations, the selection and designation of "LEADING AVAILABLE CONTENDER" in each weight division shall be made in accordance with the current list of leading contenders promulgated by the Ratings Committee of the Association.

Nothing in this Regulation shall be construed to prohibit a Champion from engaging in non-championship or non title contest than as provided for in this Regulations, so long as he shall meanwhile comply with all of the requirements hereunder. Results of non championships or non title fights will in no way affect the situation of a World Title Holder.

7) Return Bout Clause in Championship Contest Contracts

No contract for a Championship contest shall contain any clause, or any provision, whatsoever, guaranteeing, or in anywise assuring, or promising either contestant a return World Championship contest, it being the definite purpose of this Regulation to limit the legal scope, effect and pertinence of every such contract strictly to the single contest for which it primarily provides; nor shall any such contract contain any clause, or provision, whereby any interest whatsoever in the future earnings, or management, of either contestant shall pass to the other contestant or to any other designee, name, or named in the contract; nor shall any such contract contain any clause, or provision, whereby the services of either, or both, of the contestants shall be guaranteed, or otherwise assured to any promoter, promotional group, or corporate enterprise for any future contest, or contests, after the completion of the contest primarily provided for in the contract. This Regulation shall apply indiscriminately and with equal force to written and oral supplemental contracts and collateral agreements, regardless of whether, or not, such contract, agreement, or supplement thereto, shall have been filed with, brought to the attention, or approved by any Athletic Commission, Boxing Commission, or other authority affilliated, or unaffilliated, with the World Boxing Association.

Any member of the World Boxing Association which shall violate, or shall collaborate in the violation of any provision of this Regulation shall be subject to dismissal from membership in the Association. Upon violation of this Regulation the World Championship involved shall forthwith be declared vacant.

This Regulations does not prohibit a return Championship contest between a Champion and Challenger, if performance by both contestants in a Championship contest warrants a return bout. Should a Championship contest end in a draw decision, or if such contest is extremely close and one contestant is awarded a close controversial decision over the other, the Championship Committee, in its discretion, may direct the two contestants to meet again for the Championship within a prescribed time.

8) Failure of Champion to Fulfill Contract

If a recognized World Champion shall fail, without reason sufficient and satisfactory to the Committee, to fulfill on schedule his contractual obligation to engage in a World Championship Contest, the Committee shall recommend to the President and the Executive Committee that recognition of his Title be withdrawn and the Title be declared vacant, provided, however, that if a champion is justifiably disabled and such disability has been proven to and accepted by the World Championship Committee after the period of time stipulated in Rule 6 has expired, he shall be granted an additional 180 day period of grace which will be valid for all categories. These time limits must be put to a vote and approved by the World Championship Committee. If the champion's disability were to extend beyond the established time period, the top ranked title position would be declared vacant, and a qualifying fight would be staged for the title in accordance with World Championship rules. In such an event, the champion losing the title due to disability would occupy position No. 1 in the classification of his respective category. These provisions would apply as long as the champion had received reasonable offers in accordance with the World Championship Committee's criteria for the defense of his title, that is, that the champion had not been able to accept a fight due to his disability.

9) Procedure When Title Becomes Vacant

In the event any World Championship Title becomes vacant, the then numbers one (1) and two (2) highest rated available contenders in that division shall box for the Championship. The said two contenders shall be given a period of thirty (30) days in which to negotiate the best possible contract and purse from promoters of such Championship contest. However, failing to negotiate a binding contract for such Championship contest, the Chairman of the Championship Committee shall request purse offers for such contest to be submitted in sealed envelopes for public opening on a specified date and time with the match going to the highest bidder.

10) Draw Decision

If a World Championship Contest shall be declared a draw, or if for any reason both contestants in a Championship Contest shall become simultaneously unable to continue, or for any reason beyond the control of the contestants the contest shall be prematurely terminated while both contestants remain able to continue as so adjudged by the Referee of the contest, or if for any reason the official, or officials duly appointed for such purpose shall fail to render, or shall be prevented from rendering a decision after the contest, the Championship shall be retained by the defending Champion.

11) Rings

Rings used in World Championship contests shall be not less than eighteen (18) nor more than twenty four (24) feet square within the ropes and the floor of the ring must extend beyond the ropes not less than eighteen (18) inches. The floor of the ring shall be padded with one (1) inch layer of Ensolite, or the equivalent, placed over a one (1) inch base of building board or other suitable material. The padding shall be covered with canvas, duck, or similar material tightly stretched and laced securely in place under the apron. Ring ropes may be three (3) or four (4) in number and not less than (1) inch in diameter. All ropes shall be wrapped securely in soft material.

When three (3) ropes are used they shall extend in triple parallel lines two (2), three (3) and four (4) feet above the ring floor. If four (4) ropes are used the lower rope shall be eighteen (18) inches above the ring floor, the second rope thirty (30) inches, the third rope forty-two (42) inches and the fourth rope fifty-four (54) inches above the ring floor.

12) Officials

The Championship Committees shall maintain an active of qualified officials (referees and judges) for assignment to officiate in World Championship contests. Such officials shall be assigned without partiality in accordance with their availability when the Committee is requested to make such assignment.

When assigned by the W.B.A., the Officials shall be paid, as a compensation for their time and cooperation in conducting the bout, on the following basis:

FOR HEAVYWEIGHT TITLE FIGHTS:

Referee	USA $1,000.00
Judges	USA $ 500.00

FOR THE REST OF THE DIVISIONS:

Referee	USA $ 800.00
Judges	USA $ 400.00

It is the responsibility of the Commission or Authority under which jurisdiction the contest takes place, that the Officials be paid as above determined.

All W.B.A. World Championship fights will have judges and referees appointed by the President of the W.B.A. When these are mandatory or qualifying fights to choose a new champion to fill a vacant title (if a champion has let his time limit period expire, or if it is a question of unifying a title), all officials supervising the fight shall be neutral. This means that none of them may have the same nationality as any one of the two boxers.

No officer of the Association, either elected, or appointed, shall be permitted to officiate in any Championship contest.

13) Referee

The Referee shall be the chief official in every Championship contest and he shall maintain supervision and control over the contest while it is in progress. Before any Championship contest shall begin the Referee shall ascertain the name of the Chief Second of each contestant and shall hold the said chief second responsible for the conduct of his respective corner. Shaking hands by the contestants is permissible immediately following the referee's instructions, however they may not shake hands again until after the conclusion of the contest. The Referee shall inspect the bandages and gloves of each contestant prior to the beginning of the contest and assure that the gloves are free of or other foreign sustance, that could be detrimental to an opponent, and that the bandages of each contestant conform to W.B.A. Championship Regulations.

The Referee is empowered to stop a contest and consult the Ring Physician on the advisability of allowing the bout to continue, if in his opinion, a contestant appears injured and unable to continue. The Referee is empowered to enforce discipline and the Regulations of the Association pertaining to the conduct and behavior of contestants and seconds.

14) Counting

When a contestant is knocked down the referee shall order his opponent to retire to the farthest neutral corner and immediately begin the count over the fallen contestant. He shall audibly announce the count as he motions with his arm, the downward motion indicating the end of each second of the count. Should the opponent fail to remain in the neutral corner farthest from the boxer who is down, the referee shall cease counting until he has returned to it, and then continue the count from the point at which it was interrupted. A contestant who is knocked down must take mandatory "EIGHT" (8) count. If when the count of "EIGHT" (8) is reached the contestant is on his feet, the referee, if he deems it advisable, may examine said contestant long enough to assure himself that the contestant is in fit condition to continue. If so assured the referee shall without loss of time order the contestant to continue. If the contestant taking the count is still down when the referee calls the count of "TEN" (10) the referee shall wave both hands indicating that the contestant has been knocked out. If the round ends during the count the referee shall continue to count the contestant who is down out unless said contestant rises and is on his feet before the count of "TEN" (10) is reached. A contestant is considered to be down when any part of his body except his feet is on the floor.

In every World Championship Fight of the W.B.A., it will be obligatory to comply with the "KO Rule" automaticially by three knockdowns.

"This means that, when a boxer is knocked down three (3) times in the same round as consequence of a legal punch given by the opponent and designated that way by the referee, he will automatically lose the fight by KO, when he is knocked down for the third time."

15) Seconds

Each contestant in a Championship contest shall be allowed no more than three (3) seconds, one of whom shall be the chief second who shall be responsible for the conduct of the corner during the course of the contest.

16) Drugs or Stimulants

The use of drugs or other stimulants before, or during a Championship contest, by either contestant, will be sufficient cause for disqualification of the contestant guilty of such usage. Any substance other than plain water given to a contestant during the course of the contest is absolutely prohibited. The discretional use of vaseline may be allowed around the eyes, however the use of vaseline, grease, or any other substance on the arms, legs and body is prohibited in Championship contests.

The discretional use of coagulants, as approved by the Medical Advisory Committee of the Association, may be allowed between rounds to stop the bleeding of minor cuts and lacerations sustained by a contestant. The use of "iron type" coagulants such as Monsel's solution are absolutely prohibited and the use of such coagulant by any contestant shall be cause for immediate disqualification.

17) Bandages

In all weight classes up to and including Middleweight, handbandages shall be restricted to ten (10) yards of soft gauze bandage not more than two (2) inches in width held in place by not more than six (6) feet of surgeons tape one inch in width for each hand. In the Light-heavyweight and Heavyweight classes, bandages may be twelve (12) yards in length and not more than two (2) inches in width held in place by not more than eight (8) feet of surgeons tape one inch in width for each hand.

The binding of surgeons tape must not be applied within one (1) inch of the knuckles of the contestant's hand.

18) Weight of Gloves

The weight of gloves to be used in Championship contests shall be as follows:

Jr. Middleweights and above shall use ten (10) ounce gloves.

Jr. Welterweight and below to Bantamweight, shall use eight (8) ounce gloves.

Jr. Flyweights and Flyweights, shall use six (6) ounce gloves.

19) Exception to Regulations

Any exception to these World Championshp Regulations must be approved by a two-thirds vote of the Championship Committee, approved by the President and approved by a majority vote of the Executive Committee.

20) Attendance of W.B.A. Officials at all Sanctioned World Championship Contests

The President of the Association shall attend, or assign an Officer of the Association to attend, each World Championship Contest sanctioned by the Association. The duties of such Officer shall be to assist the local Commission in the conduct of the contest, assignment of officials as designated to officiate in the Contest, and insure that all World Boxing Association World Championship Regulations are enforced. In making such assignment, the President shall consider the qualifications of such assignee with regard to knowledge and experience in World Championship matters of the Association. The W.B.A. representative shall submit a complete report within ten (10) days following the contest to the President and shall cover expenses of, and other matters pertinent to the assignment. The President will submit this written report to the Executive Committee.

World Boxing Association
SAFETY CODE

1. In order to obtain a license or the renewal of a license, all boxers must submit to a thorough medical examination by a physician approved by the Boxing Commission. The examination shall include a complete history of the applicant and any or all of the following laboratory procedures at the discretion of such physician; x-ray; skull x-ray; flat abdominal x-ray; electrocardiogram; complete blood count including bleeding and coagulation time; urine analysis; serological examination for syphilis; neurological and psychiatric examination and any other test or survey which might be indicated by the past record or present condition of the applicant.

a. If possible the medical examining room provided for the use of such physician should have the following diagnostic equipment; x-ray; fluoroscope; electrocardiographic machine; electroencephalographic machine; ophthalmoscopes; illuminated eye chart; snellen chart; laboratory equipment for chemical tests; mercurymanometers; sterilizing unit; examination tables and otoscopes.

b. All boxers applying for an original license must be given an electroencephalographic examination, chest x-ray and serological tests for syphilis.

2. All boxers in a championship or other main bout must be given a physical examination at least 5 days prior to the date of the contest. Such examination shall be performed by a physician approved by the Boxing Commission and shall include as many of the laboratory procedures outlined in Section 1. as the examining physician may decide are necessary.

3. Boxers in all bouts shall have the type of examination outlined in Section 2. on the day of the bout, both at the noon weighing-in and in the evening a short while before the boxing program commences.

4. In all classes up to and including middleweights, all bandages on the hands of a boxer shall be restricted to soft cloth not more than 10 yards in length and 2 inches in width, held in place by not more than 6 feet of surgeon's tape for each hand.

In the light heavyweight and heavyweight classes, the bandages must be 12 yards in length and not more than 2 inches in width, held in place by not more than 8 feet of surgeon's tape for each hand. The use of 6 inches of adhesive tape, not more than 1 inch in width, will be permitted across the back of each hand before bandaging the hands, provided same is not put across the knuckles. These bandages shall be adjusted in the dressing room in the presence of a Commission representative. Under no condition are bandages to be placed on the hands of a contestant until the approval of the Commission is stamped on the bandages by its representative.

5. In the event of any serious injury, the ringside physician shall immediately render any emergency treatment necessary, recommend further treatment or hospitalization if indicated, and fully report the entire matter to the Commission within 24 hours and subsequently thereafter, if necessary. Such physician may also require that the injured boxer and his manager remain in the ring or on the premises after the contest for such period of time as the physician deems advisable.

6. The ringside physician may enter the ring between rounds for the purpose of examining an injured contestant. If in the opinion of such physician a contestant has received severe undue punishment or is in danger of further serious physical injury, he may suggest to the referee to terminate the bout. All ringside physicians must be selected from a panel approved by the Boxing Commission.

7. The number of Commission physicians required to be in attendance at each bout and the type and quantity of medical and emergency equipment and instruments which the licensed promoting corporation shall have available at ringside or elsewhere in the premises, shall be as the Commission may prescribe from time to time by bulletin.

8. Any boxer who has sustained any severe injury or actual knockout in a bout shall within 24 hours be thoroughly examined by a physician approved by the Boxing Commission. Such examination shall include any or all of the procedures as provided in Section 1. above or as is especially directed by the Commission physician or the ringside physician. Upon the physician's request, the Commission may suspend the boxer until he is fully recovered and, similarly, may extend any such suspension already imposed.

9. All medical reports submitted to the Commission relative to the physical examination or condition of boxers shall be considered confidential, and shall be open to examination only to the Commission or its authorized representative, to the licensed boxer upon his written application to examine said records, or upon the order of a court of competent jurisdiction in an appropriate case.

10. Any contestant who has lost six consecutive fights must be automatically suspended and cannot be reinstated until he has submitted to a medical examination of the type specified in Section 1. above. In case of repeated knockouts and severe beatings, the boxer concerned should be retired for his own physical welfare.

11. Any boxer who has suffered an actual knockout shall be suspended for at least 60 days and shall forewith surrender his license card to the Commission. He cannot be reinstated until he has submitted to a medical examination of the type specified in Section 1. above.

If such boxer suffers a knockout in his next bout or within three months following a previous knockout he shall be suspended from boxing for a period of six months. During the six months interval he shall refrain from any contact training in the gymnasium. It shall be the responsibility of the boxer's manager to see that he complies with this rule and any violation shall result in indefinite suspension of the boxer and/or his manager.

12. In all boxing bouts, including championship matches, when a boxer is clearly knocked down, he shall be required to take a count of 8 whether or not he has regained his feet before the count of 8 has been reached. Should a boxer slip, fall down, or be pushed down, he shall be ordered to his feet immediately. Failure to rise may subject him to disqualification.

13. Semi-annual and annual medical examinations must be given to all licensed judges and referees by the Commission physician and such examination must be of the same type and thoroughness as is outlined in Section 1. above.

14. In the event that a boxer who has suffered a knockout or any severe injury has on such account been treated by his personal physician or has been hospitalized, he or his manager must promptly submit to the Boxing Commission a full report from such physician or hospital.

15. The Commission shall appoint a panel of three physicians to specially examine any licensed boxer when a question arises as to the physical ability of such licensee to engage in a scheduled match, and the findings of such panel shall be a conclusive determination of such question. Any injury or illness before a scheduled match or while in training for such match must be fully reported to the Commission within 24 hours by the licensee or his licensed manager. In the event the Commission does not request the appointment of such a panel, the licensee must be examined by one approved physician in accordance with the procedures outlined in Section 1. above.

16. In all boxing bouts, including championship matches, when a boxer is clearly knocked down a total of three times in any one round, the contest should be terminated and the opponent shall be awarded the decision. All knockdowns must be fore the mandatory 8 count.

17. When a boxer is knocked out, the referee shall perform a full ten second count in order to avoid confusion as to the termination of the contest. Except in the final round of a bout, when a round in any boxing contest shall terminate before a contestant who has been knocked down shall have risen from the floor of the ring, the timekeeper's count shall be continued. If the fallen contestant shall fail to rise before the count of ten, he shall be considered to have lost the bout by a knockout in the round lately concluded.

18. When a boxer has been knocked out, none of his handlers is to touch him, except to remove his rubber mouth protector until the attending physician enters the ring and personally attends the fallen boxer, and issues such instruction as he sees fit to the boxer's handlers.

19. Each boxer shall be equipped and use throughout the bout a custom-made individually fabricated mouth guard.

20. Each glove shall weigh not less than six ounces for contestants ranging from 108 pounds to 175 pounds and not less than eight ounces for contestants over 175 pounds.

21. All boxing rings must be equipped with ropes not less than one inch thick in diameter. Such ropes shall be manila rope, synthetic rope or plastic rope or any similar material and shall not be made of metal of any type. All ropes shall be wrapped in soft material. The ring padding shall consist of one one inch layer of "Ensolite Boxing Ring Pad" or similar material applied over a one inch base of Celotex Building Board or similar material.

22. A portable resuscitator with oxygen equipment should be available at all rings.

23. In each application for a bout, the results of the last six bouts for each main event contestants shall be included in a sworn statement signed by the boxer, manager, and promoter. This shall include a clause certifying that the boxer is in excellent physical condition and is not concealing an illness or injury.

24. Boxers should be retired at 36 years of age providing further that any boxer applying for license above that age shall have his case reviewed by his local Boxing Commission.

25. Any boxer who has had cardiac surgery shall be permanently denied a license.

RULES AND REGULATIONS GOVERNING WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP CONTESTS

The Rules and Regulations that govern World Championship contests, adopted by the World Boxing Association, shall be obligatory and binding in all World Boxing Association's sanctioned contests and shall prevail over local Regulations and Rules. These Regulations shall govern World Championship contests of professional boxing as determined and recognized by the World Boxing Association.

1. GENERAL RULES AND REGULATIONS

1.1 World Championship contests shall be held under the jurisdiction of the local Commission or authorized body legally organized to regulate, control or supervise professional boxing and under the Rules and Regulations of the World Boxing Association who shall assign an Officer to insure that all World Boxing Association's World Championship Regulations are enforced.

1.2 All World Championship contests must be of 15 rounds duration. Each round shall be of 3 minutes duration with a one minute intermission between rounds.

1.3 The Referee and the Judges shall score the contest and determine the winner through the use of the ten-point must system. In this system the winner of each round receives ten points and the opponent a proportionately less number. Under no circumstances will the scoring be less than ten to seven. When the round is even, each boxer receives ten points.

2. WEIGHT AND WEIGHING-IN CEREMONY

2.1 Contestants for a World Championship contest shall be weighed-in the day of the scheduled match, at a time so determined by the Commission, in the presence of a Commission representative and the World Boxing Association representative, at such place as may be designated by the Commission. The scales to be used at the official weigh-in must be available to both contestants at least two hours prior to the official weigh-in time.

Weight determines Championships and if any of the contestants (Champion or Challenger) fail to make the prescribed weight at the official weigh-in time, either or each have two hours to make the prescribed weight. If the World Champion fails to make the prescribed weight within the two hours additional time, his title shall be forfeited in the scales and the contest may be staged as scheduled. If the Challenger—having made the prescribed weight shall win, he shall succeed to the championship, but if the erstwhile champion shall win, the championship will be declared vacant. If the Champion makes the weight and the Challenger fails to do so, the Champion whether he wins or loses the bout, retains his title. In the event both contestants fail to make the prescribed weight within the two hours additional time, this regulation shall remain in full force and effect and the bout shall proceed as a non-title match.

3. KNOCKDOWN AND KNOCKOUT

3.1 A boxer shall be deemed to be "down" when any part of his body except his feet are on the floor, or if he is hanging helplessly over the ropes as a result of a legal blow as ruled by the Referee who is the only person authorized to determine this.

3.2 The mandatory eight (8) count rule shall be in effect in all World Championship bouts.

3.3 When a contestant is knocked down, the Referee shall audibly announce the count as he motions with his right arm downward indicating the end of each second of the count. If the contestant taking the count is still down when the Referee calls the count of ten (10), the Referee shall wave both arms indicating that the contestant has been knocked out.

3.4 When a contestant is deemed "down" the Referee shall order the opponent to retire to the farthest corner of the ring, pointing to the corner, and immediately assume counting from the time-keeper or knock-out caller. Should the opponent fail to stay in the farthest corner the Referee shall cease counting until he has retired to it, and then resume the counting from the point from which it was interrupted.

3.5 A contestant who has fallen through the ropes and out of the platform of the ring as a result of a legal blow during the contest may not be helped by anyone, and the Referee shall start the count, which in this special case will be twenty (20) seconds. Should the contestant fail to re-enter the ring before the count of twenty (20) seconds, the Referee shall wave both arms to indicate that he has been knocked out and shall raise the hand of the opponent as the winner.

3.5A Three knockdowns in a round constitute an automatic knockout.

3.6 When a round, with the exception of the final round, shall terminate before a contestant who has been knocked down shall have risen from the floor of the ring, the time-keeper or knock-down caller's count shall be continued and if the fallen contestant shall fail to rise before the count of ten (10), he shall be declared the loser by knockout in the round just concluded.

4. ILLEGAL BLOWS—FOULS

4.1 It is expressly understood that a World Championship contest is not to be terminated by a low-blow, as the protector that must be used by both contestants is sufficient protection to withstand any so-called low blow which might incapacitate any of the contestants.

4.2 If one of the contestants shall fall to the ring floor or otherwise indicate an unwillingness to continue because of a claim of a low-blow foul, the contest shall be terminated and the Referee shall award the contest to his opponent.

In case of an accidental foul so determined by the Referee, he shall determine whether the boxer who has been fouled can continue or not. If his chances have not been seriously jeopardized as a result of the foul the Referee may order the bout continued after an interval of not more than five (5) minutes rest.

4.3 Any contestant who deliberately fouls his opponent during a contest will be penalized with loss of points or disqualified depending upon the severity or harmlessness of the foul and its effect upon the opponent.

5. INJURIES (CUTS)

5.1 Fair Blows: When an injury (cut) is produced by a fair blow and because of the severity of the same the contest cannot continue, the injured boxer will be declared the loser by Technical Knockout.

5.2 Unfair Blows (Fouls): Unfair blows (fouls) may be the result of:

(a) Intentional fouls: Should a boxer intentionally foul his opponent and as a result an injury (cut) is produced, and due to the severity of same the contestant cannot continue, the offender shall be declared the loser by disqualification. If under the same circumstances (intentional fouling) the contest can continue, the Referee will penalize the offender deducting points, depending upon the severity of the offense. In this case the Referee shall notify the Judges, the Commission and the World Boxing Association's representatives that the injury (cut) has been produced by an intentional unfair blow so that if in the subsequent rounds the same injury (cut) should become so severe that the contest has to be suspended, the decision will be awarded as follows: TECHNICAL DRAW if the injured boxer is behind in points or even on the score cards of the Judges and the Referee; TECHNICAL DECISION if the injured boxer is ahead in points on the score cards of the Judges and the Referee.

In case a contestant injures himself trying to foul his opponent, the Referee will not take any action in his favor and the injury in this case will be considered as produced by a fair blow from his opponent.

(b) Accidental fouls: If the Referee sees, or if after consultation with the Judges, determines that a boxer has been accidentally injured in a bout so that he cannot continue, the Referee shall immediately call a TECHNICAL DECISION to be awarded to the contestant who is ahead in points in the score cards of the Judges and the Referee. If under the same circumstances (accidental foul) the fight can continue, the Referee shall notify the Judges, the Commission and the World Boxing Association representatives that if in the subsequent rounds the same injury becomes severe to such an extreme that the contest has to be suspended, the decision shall be awarded in accordance with the majority vote as disclosed by the score cards.

Draw will be awarded to any of the contestants if situations (a) and (b) occur before the three rounds are completed.

6. THE REFEREE

The Referee shall exercise immediate authority, direction and control over the contest to which he has been appointed; and he shall enforce the Rules and Regulations governing World Championship contests sanctioned by the W.B.A. He shall be the only person authorized to determine injuries to decide if they were produced by an unfair or fair blow, and if it was intentional or accidental.

He shall have the power to stop a contest and render a decision at any stage if he considers it to be too one-sided; or if either contestant is in such condition that to continue might subject him to serious injury.

In the case where a boxer receives a cut eye from a fair blow or an accidental butt or any other injury which the Referee believes may incapacitate the boxer, the Referee is empowered to stop the contest and consult the ring physician on the advisability of allowing the bout to continue.

7. THE RINGSIDE PHYSICIAN

7.1 The ringside physician may only enter the ring during the progress of a bout when required to do so by the Referee. He may enter the ring between rounds on his own judgment and shall inform the Referee about his opinion in relation to the physical condition of either contestant.

8. DRUGS AND STIMULANTS

8.1 The administration or use of drugs or stimulants, either before or during a match, to or by any boxer, is prohibited. Any of the contestants violating this Rule shall be subject to disqualification.

Any substance other than plain water given to a contestant during the course of the contest is absolutely prohibited. The discretional use of vaseline may be allowed around the eyes, however, the use of vaseline, grease or any other substance on the arms, legs and body of either contestant is prohibited.

The discretional use of coagulants, like a solution of adrenalin (1/1000) as approved by the ringside physician, may be allowed between rounds to stop bleeding of minor cuts and lacerations sustained by a contestant. The use of "iron type" coagulants such as Monsel's solution are absolutely prohibited and the use of such coagulants to or by any contestant shall be considered a violation and shall be cause for immediate disqualification.

9. WEIGHT OF GLOVES

9.1 The weight of gloves to be used in World Championship contests shall be as follows:

Jr. Middleweight and above shall use ten (10) ounce gloves.

Welterweights and below to bantamweights shall use eight (8) ounce gloves.

Flyweights and Jr. Flyweights shall use six (6) ounce gloves.

10. BANDAGES

10.1 In all weight classes up to and including Middleweights, hand bandages shall be restricted to ten (10) yards of soft gauze bandage not more than two (2) inches in width, held in place by not more than six (6) feet of surgeon's tape, one inch in width, for each hand.

In the Light-heavyweight and Heavyweight classes, bandages may be twelve (12) yards in length and not more than two (2) inches in width, held in place by not more than eight (8) feet of surgeon's tape, one inch in width, for each hand.

The binding of surgeon's tape must not be applied within one inch of the knuckles of the contestant's hand.

11. CESSATION OF CONTEST BECAUSE OF UNEXPECTED REASONS

11.1 Should unexpected or accidental reasons determine the cessation of a World Championship contest before the scheduled rounds, the decision shall be awarded as a TECHNICAL DECISION to the contestant who is ahead in points in the score cards of the Judges and the Referee at that moment, provided, however, that at the time the cessation occurs not less than three (3) rounds of the scheduled rounds have elapsed. If the happening occurs before three rounds, there will be no decision.

12. OFFICIALS

12.1 The Officials (two judges and one Referee) to officiate in World Championship contests shall be appointed in accordance with the terms and conditions in effect in the contracts for such contest. If there is no provision to this effect in the contracts, the said Officials will be appointed by the local Commission under the supervision of the W.B.A. Official appointed to supervise the contest.

13. EXCEPTIONS TO REGULATIONS

13.1 Any exceptions to these World Championship contest Regulations must be approved by a two-thirds vote of the World Championship Committee, approved by the President of the Association and approved by a majority vote of the Executive Committee.

To the Boxing Family of the world:

We present with pride, the Constitution, Rules and Regulations of the World Boxing Council, which represents the responsible work and experience of a substantial number of the most qualified and competent boxing commissionners of the 100countries that form our organization.

There is no more integrity than to base invariably our acts in the absolute support to this Law. By not being fair to enforce a law that might be unfair, we have constantly made ammendments to form a law that is authentically representative of equality and of the absolute respect to the rights of everyone, wealthy or poor, powerful or humble.

Let us respect this law, as it represents the justice that is the mystique that should be our vocation, as based on it, we can feel that we defend our boxing with dignity and integrity.

I deeply appreciate our Legal Advisor, Mr. Robert Marshall, who assisted by Mr. Alexander Elliot, Mr. Piero Pini and myself, has gathered the experiences and recommendations of our colleagues, members of the Executive Council of the World Boxing Council.

Let us defend this Constitution, Rules and Regulations, as is required from us by those who so undeservedly have deposited their trust in us, so that everybody, with no exceptions, has always at hand a recourse of justice and equity.

José Sulaimán Chagnón
President.

III-3 Adopt Rules, Regulations and Standards. To prescribe the Rules and Regulations under which a world championship or elimination match shall be fought, and from time to time prescribe rules and standards for the conduct and scoring of all boxing contests to the end of obtaining universal unity in the sport.

III-4 Mediate Disputes. To act upon and decide, settle and arbitrate disputes between member federations, boards or commissions, between boxers, managers, promoters and other licensed boxing personages and all other problems and disputes which may arise in the boxing sport, whenever the local commission, board or member federation concerned shall have been unable to resolve such problems or disputes.

III-5 Resolve Grievance and Problems. To resolve grievance and problems that might arise in the sport of boxing according to the majority of votes of the Executive Council, with the Grievance and Appeals Committee working informally to solve all such problems, and if not possible, to present its recommendations regarding such problems to the Executive Council of the WBC.

III-6 Coordinate Activities and Suspensions with Local Commissions and Federations. To coordinate all activities and actions of member federations and commissions so that all suspensions, revocations of licenses and other penalties or sanctions enforced lawfully by member federations or commissions against any boxer, manager, trainer or any boxing personage shall be enforced and respected throughout the world. No suspended boxer shall appear in the official ratings until the time of his reinstatement by the boxing commission which suspended him.

III-7 Respect Decisions Regarding Suspension by Member Federation and Commission. The reinstatement of any suspended person shall be made only by such member federation or commission who originally promulgated the suspension and the decision of the federation or commission shall be respected by all members, even though the WBC. Grievance and Appeals Committee shall have the right and power to make recommendations and intervene for the solution of such problems.

III-8 Withdraw or Suspend Championship Recognition To suspend or withdraw recognition from any champion in any weight division for any violation of this Constitution, Rules and Regulations, or generally accepted boxing custom and practice, or for such other cause which in the opinion and discretion of the Executive Council justifies such suspension or withdrawal or recognition, such as, for example, the champion making a title defense or fighting in or otherwise supporting a country where race discrimination violating basic human rights in any sport is practiced.

III-9 To Promote all Aspects of Boxing. To do all such things as are incidental and conducive to attainment of the purposes of the WBC and the promotion of boxing unity, safety and fair competition in the world, including:

a) The WBC endorses, supports and adopts a world technical school of boxing, and pledges to do everything within its power to assure that such a school is created to foster and enhance the quality of boxing and public appreciation of the sport.

b) The WBC endorses, supports and adopts a worldwide center of health protection and prevention for the sport of boxing, and pledges to do everything within its power to assure that such a center is created to foster and enhance the prevailing body of medical knowledge and expertise and employment of such knowledge and expertise in every way that will serve the best interests of the public, all boxers, and the sport of boxing.

c) The WBC endorses, supports, and adopts and International License and a yearly medical certificate to be carried by all boxers to document the fighter's record. medical examinations conducted and doctors' comments made after each fight, and all additional information necessary for the strict supervision of the health and safety of boxers, throughout the world. Presentation of the valid and correct International License shall be a condition to any local commission affiliated with the WBC authorizing a fighter to box within its jurisdiction.

ARTICLE IV- THE EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

IV-1 Composition. All the duties, functions and powers herein specified shall pertain to and be exercised by the Executive Council of the WBC consisting of the President and Vice-Presidents of the WBC, the Secretary General/Treasurer and all the Presidents of the federations which are members of the WBC, plus another appointed official member of each continental federation.

IV-2 Voting Procedures.

a) Unless otherweise provided for in these Rules and Regulations, a majority vote of the members of the Executive Council shall be sufficient for the taking of any action or promultation of any decision. Any reference in these Rules and Regulations to a vote of or by the majority of the Executive Council shall mean a vote of or by the majority of total votes of all members of the Executive Council (or such lesser number or member permitted to vote as provided hereunder) even though one or more of such members abstain or otherwise fail to cast a vote. Any reference to a 2/3 vote of the Executive Council shall likewise mean a 2/3 vote of the total votes of all members of the Executive Council (or such lesser number of members permitted to vote as provided hereunder) even though one or more such members abstain or otherwise fail to cast a vote. Unless otherwise provided for in these Rules and Regulations, the two members of the Executive Council from each member federation, the Secretary General, and the WBC Vice Presidents shall be permitted to vote on all matters, with the President voting only in the event of a tie.

b) If the President determines in his discretion that it is necessary and appropriate to take an immediate vote of the Executive Council concerning a particular matter, then such an immediate vote may be taken with or without a meeting of only seven members of the Executive Council, one for each continental federation, with the President voting in case of a tie.

No such limited vote of the Executive Council shall be permissible in connection with any decision as to championship recognition by the WBC of any fighter. All other procedures for the voting by the Executive Council as provided shall be applicable to such a limited vote taken by the President.

c) When the President or Secretary General takes a vote of the Executive Council on any matter, he may, in his discretion, make his recommendation as to the manner of voting, and in any instance where such a recommendation has been made by the President or Secretary General, the failure of a member of the Executive Council to vote on a matter communicated to him on which his vote has been requested shall be considered and deemed to be a vote in accordance with the recommendation of the President or Secretary General. In all instances where the President or Secretary General does not make a recommendation as to the manner of voting, the failure of a member of the Executive Council to vote shall be considered and deemed an abstention from voting on such matters.

d) In between meetings of the Executive Council and in any instance where the Council cannot actually meet, matters which need its action may be considered and voted upon by means of letters and/or cables, or, where in the discretion of the President or Secretary General such written votings are impracticable or impossible, by means of oral or telephonic communications made directly to the President or Secretary General. In the absence of a meeting of the Executive Council each member must give his vote on any matter submitted to a vote by the President or Secretary General within seven (7) days after receipt of the request for such a vote, subject to reasonable extensions provided in the discretion of the President of Secretary General under the facts and circumstances of each case.

ARTICLE V - MEMBERSHIP

ARTICLE X - AMENDMENTS

X-1 New Amendments. No amendments shall be made to this Constitution except at a meeting or by a vote of the majority of the Executive Council in any manner authorized under these Rules and Regulations.

X-2 Matters not Covered by Rules. On matters which are not expressly covered by these Rules and Regulations, the Executive Counçil is empowered to act in any manner it deems appropriate under the circumstances of each case, but always making decisions based on a majority of votes.

ARTICLE XI - EFFECTIVE DATE

This Constitution, Rules and Regulations were adopted in 1969 in Manila, Philippines; its amendments in 1971 and 1972 in Mexico city; in 1973 in Brazil; in 1974 in Mexico city; in 1975 in Tunis; in 1976 in Las Vegas, U. S. A.; in 1977 in Madrid, Spain; in 1978 in Reno, U.S.A.; in 1979 in Casablanca, Morocco, and in 1980 in Mexico City.

ARTICLE XII - CHAMPIONSHIP AND ELIMINATION RULES

XII-1 Site of Championship Bout. The World Boxing Council will only authorize and certify world title fights held in those locations where this Constitution, Rules and Regulations are respected. The WBC will not certify any match for a WBC recognized championship if it is scheduled to take place in a country which practices racial discrimination in any sport.

XII-2 Championship Defense Obligations.

a) Voluntary Defenses. Any boxer recognized as champion in a weight division must defend his title in a title defense at least every four months against any of the top ten (10) rated contenders selected from the ratings established by the Ratings Committee of the WBC or a champion of another weight division also recognized by the WBC, provided that majority vote of the Executive Council es necessary for the certification of a championship bout between the champion of one division with a champion of another. A retired ex-world champion or other boxer of great prestige may also be authorized as a challenger to a world championship upon a majority vote of the Executive Council, but only after undergoing a complete physical examination acceptable to the WBC Medical Committee. champions recognized by other boxing organizations, but not rated number 1 and/or rated with an asterick in his division by the WBC may be certified by a majority vote to fight for the WBC recognized world title in a voluntary, but no mandatory titla defense. A majority vote of the Executive Council shall be needed when the challenger is rated in a different weight class of the champion to approve such a bout.

b) Mandatory Defenses. Notwithstanding the voluntary defense obligation, any boxer recognized as champion in a weight division, must defend his title in a mandatory defense against the designated official challenger to the title within six months after his first voluntary defense. Thereafter, such recognized champion must defend his title while he is champion in mandatory defenses within six months after his first voluntary defense following each mandatory fight, but in all cases, within a one year period after each such mandatory defense. The official challenger shall be designated when necessary for a mandatory defense to the title, and he shall be ither the No. 1 rated contender, or the next highest rated available if the No. 1 rated fighter cannot or will not participate in the fight, or the winner or an official elimination bout or tournament to determine an official challenger. Whenever a champion defends his title against the No. 1 rated contender (or, if the No. 1 rated contender is physica lly unable or unwilling to fight, against the next highest rated contender) in a voluntary defense, such defense will be considered and treated as a mandatory defense for time limit purposes under these Rules and Regulations. During each year that the champion holds the WBC championship, he must make at least two and may make more voluntary defenses against top ten rated or other challengers approved by the WBC Executive Council, provided, however, 1) That the obligation of the champion to fight the official challenter in a mandatory defense as provided herein shall not be extended or modified by reason of such voluntary defenses; 2) That a challenger who is victorious over a champion in a voluntary defense shall automatically inherit the mandatory defense time limit against the official challenger of the champion he defeated, provided that the mandatory defense by the new champion in such a case shall not be required within the first seventy-five (75) days after he won the title. Once a victorious challenger in a voluntary defense has complied with the foregoing and successfully defended his title in a mandatory defense within the time limits inherited from the champion he defeated (subject to the seventy-five (75) day grace period stated above), he shall from the date of his successful mandatory defense be subject to the foregoing championship defense obligations.

c) Time Limits. The time limits respecting championship defenses, as provided herein, shall be complied with in all cases, except when waived or extended by the Executive Council under appropriate circumstances, such as, for example, situations where no official challenger to the title has been designated by the WBC for a mandatory defense.

XII-3 Withdrawal or Suspension of Championship Recognition.

a) Grounds. The Executive council may, by a two-third vote of its members, withdraw or suspend a fighter's recognition as a WBC champion if he fails to defend his title in accordance with the foregoing championship defense obligations or fails to comply with or violates any other Rules and Regulations of the WBC or generally accepted boxing custom and practice for any reason (including holding the championship title of another boxing organization with conflicting rules, regulations and/or procedures), or for such other cause which in the opinion and discretion of the Executive Council justifies such suspension or withdrawal of recognition, such as, for example, the champion making a title defense or fighting in or otherwise supporting a country where racial discrimination in any sport is practiced.

b) Petition for Reconsideration. In the event that recognition of any champion is suspended or withdraw under this rules, the affected fighter may, within fifteen (15) days after the decision to suspend or withdraw recognition has been rendered, file a written petition for reconsideration with the President or Secretary General of the WBC setting forth any reason, documentation, evidence or other matter which, in the opinion of the affected boxer, justifies the reconsideration by the Executive Council of the decision to suspend or withdraw recognition. The Executive council will render a decision either to grant or deny the petition for reconsideration as soon as possible after said petitionis filed and, if reconsideration is granted, determine the matter as soon as possible thereafter. A majority vote of the Executive council shall be necessary to grant a petition for reconsideration and, if a petition is granted, the decision to suspend or withdraw recognition shall require a two-thirds vote of the Executive Council. Denial of the petition for reconsideration shall make the decision to suspend or withdraw recognition final.

XII-4 Loss of WBC Championship Status. In the event that any WBC recognized champion elects to fight in a bout within the weight limits of the champion's division without certification for the WBC title or to fight in a bout within the weight limits certifies or recognized as a championship event by another boxing organization without certification for the WBC title and loses to his opponent, he shall automatically lose his WBC championship recognition and the title will be declared vacant.

b) Dual World Championship. Any WBC world champion in one division who becomes the world champion in another division must relinquish one of his titles within seven days after becoming such a dual titleholder, and the title shall become vacant.

c) Nontitle Fees for Champions who fight Within the Weight without Risking their WBC Championship. In view of the public prestige and notoriety and economic benefits that a fighter has gained and received and will gain and will receive by reason by his designation a WBC world champion, and for other reasons, if such a WBC champion in a weight division elects to fight in a 15 round bout within his weight limits without certification for the WBC world title, he shall be required to pay a sum to the WBC equal in amount to the championship certification fee otherwise payable by him to the WBC under Article VII-3 (b) hereof. In the event that a champion fails to make the foregoing payments, the WBC may exercise and reserves each and all of its rights and remedies, including, without limitation, withdrawal or suspension of championship recognition.

XII-5 Elimination Fights. All elimination fights to determine an official challenger to the title shall be conducted at twelve rounds within the weights of the division. If one fighter does not make the weight, the other fighter shall automatically become the official challenger.

XII-6 Vacant Title. In the case of a title becoming vacant for any reason, the Executive Council may then authorize and cause to be instituted a tournament or elimination contest among the leading contenders in the division for the vacan title, with the winner to be recognized as the new champion, or the Council may authorize or cause to be instituted a direct fight between the two top rated boxers and recognize the winner as the champion, or the Executive Council may take any other steps or actions which is its judgment and discretion are necessary or appropriate for filling the title vacancy. The Executive Council may also impose such conditions as it deems proper and necessary upon a new champion, including 1) designation of the boxer against whom the first defense of the title must be made, (who will be the next highest rated boxer or a boxer selected bu an elimination bout) and/or 2) ordering the new champion to make his first mandatory defense within ninety to one hundred and twenty (120) days of his acquiring the title.

XII-7 Purse Offer Respected. The purse offer system adopted by the WBC shall be respected at all times in title fights and title-elimination fights, even when a promoter has options for title fights by any of the fighters in such fights.

XII-8 Options for Title Fights. Only one (1) option to a promoter from a challenger boxer in both mandatory and optional world title fights is required at the request of the promoter, and no more that one such option shall be permitted under these rules. No such options will be valid in the case of purse offers. In order to promote and preserve competition and deter monopoly in the sport of boxing and to prevent potential conflict with the WBC purse offer procedures, any agreement for more than the approved number of options for world title fights and any exclusive fight promotional contracts between a fighter and a promoter which provide for more than the approved number of options for world title fights will not be accepted or recognized by the WBC and any contracts (including exclusive fight promotional contracts) for a championship bout with more than the specified number of options will not be accepted for registration by the WBC. Options for non-title fights are not regulated or governed by this rules.

XII-3 Withdrawal or Suspension of Championship Recognition.

a) Grounds. The Executive council may, by a two-third vote of its members, withdraw or suspend a fighter's recognition as a WBC champion if he fails to defend his title in accordance with the foregoing championship defense obligations or fails to comply with or violates any other Rules and Regulations of the WBC or generally accepted boxing custom and practice for any reason (including holding the championship title of another boxing organization with conflicting rules, regulations and/or procedures), or for such other cause which in the opinion and discretion of the Executive Council justifies such suspension or withdrawal of recognition, such as, for example, the champion making a title defense or fighting in or otherwise supporting a country where racial discrimination in any sport is practiced.

b) Petition for Reconsideration. In the event that recognition of any champion is suspended or withdraw under this rules, the affected fighter may, within fifteen (15) days after the decision to suspend or withdraw recognition has been rendered, file a written petition for reconsideration with the President or Secretary General of the WBC setting forth any reason, documentation, evidence or other matter which, in the opinion of the affected boxer, justifies the reconsideration by the Executive Council of the decision to suspend or withdraw recognition. The Executive council will render a decision either to grant or deny the petition for reconsideration as soon as possible after said petitionis filed and, if reconsideration is granted, determine the matter as soon as possible thereafter. A majority vote of the Executive council shall be necessary to grant a petition for reconsideration and, if a petition is granted, the decision to suspend or withdraw recognition shall require a two-thirds vote of the Executive Council. Denial of the petition for reconsideration shall make the decision to suspend or withdraw recognition final.

XII-4 Loss of WBC Championship Status. In the event that any WBC recognized champion elects to fight in a bout within the weight limits of the champion's division without certification for the WBC title or to fight in a bout within the weight limits certifies or recognized as a championship event by another boxing organization without certification for the WBC title and loses to his opponent, he shall automatically lose his WBC championship recognition and the title will be declared vacant.

b) Dual World Championship. Any WBC world champion in one division who becomes the world champion in another division must relinquish one of his titles within seven days after becoming such a dual titleholder, and the title shall become vacant.

c) Nontitle Fees for Champions who fight Within the Weight without Risking their WBC Championship. In view of the public prestige and notoriety and economic benefits that a fighter has gained and received and will gain and will receive by reason by his designation a WBC world champion, contract shall be approved and no title match shall be certified by the WBC if it contains a "return match" clause of any term or provision which may, in any manner, require or bind the challenger to meet the champion again for the title in the event he is victorious. Further, the WBC has a policy against, and shall not certify, any match between the same two fighters, i.e., champion and challenger, in a WBC recognized title fight if it is a "return match" without an intervening contest, unless the winner of the first championship bout was the champion in which case a direct new fight may be accepted or ordered by majority vote of the Executive Council.

XII-16 Rematch Ordered After Intervening Contest. Notwhitstanding the WBC rule against "return matches" without intervening contests, the WBC may, upon a vote of two-thirds of the Executive council, order a championship bout between 1) the loser of the initial championship match which created a controversy and 2) the winner of an intervening championship contest between the winner of the initial championship match and another championship contender. In the event such a match is ordered, the winner of the intervening championship contest will be ordered to and must fight to loser of the initial championship match, provided that he shall not have lost another match in the interim. Such a return bout after an intervening contest will customarily be ordered and granted only upon a showing of unusual circumstances, such as situations in which the initial match was extremely controversial or highly disputed, or a material violation of rules ocurred, or the performance of the fighters was so outstanding that it greatly contributed to the prestige and status of the sport of boxing or generated widespread public desire and support for another match between the fighters. Any match ordered under this rule will not, unless otherwise ordered, affect the status of the champion's mandatory defense requirements under Article XII-2 but the WBC purse offer procedures set forth in Article XIV of these Rules shall be fully applicable to and followed in any such match. Any party seeking a vote by the WBC for such a match shall bear and pay for all costs and expenses incurred by the WBC in conducting such vote. The WBC shall authorize voluntary rematches at the champion's request if there have been one or more intervening championship defenses, or the WBC could order a mandatory new opportunity or rematch if the challenger has remained or he has moved up to the # 1 during the mandatory defense time for the champion.

XII-17 WBC Discretion to Deny Certification of Bouts. The WBC reserves the right to not certify any fight as being the WBC recognized world championship if, in its discretion, the fight jeopardizes the prestige, good standing or fair and uniform treatment of the WBC and/or its own champions or will cause confusion in the boxing community or the public. Such instances include, without limitation, the following:

a) WBC Bouts on Same Card or in Same Promotion with Non-WBC Championship. The WBC has a policy against, and will not certify, any match as one for the WBC championship if it is scheduled to take place on the same card or in the same promotion with one or more fights recognized by any other boxing organization, except upon a showing of extraordinary circumstances and by a two-thirds vote of the Executive Council. Any party seeking such a vote by the WBC shall bear and pay for the costs and expenses incurred by the WBC in conducting such a vote.

b) Apparent Mismatches. The WBC reserves the right to refuse to certify a world title fight with any challenger if, in its judgment and discretion, the fight is an apparent mismatch, even though the challenger is a ranking fighter.

c) The WBC will not certify any match as for the WBC recognized championship if it is to be held in any country which practises racial discrimination in any sport, including boxing.

d) The WBC will not certify any match as for the WBC recognized championship if it is to be held in a site that will not respect these Rules and Regulations and the WBC right for approval of ring officials.

XII-18 WBC Representation at Championship Fights. The WBC Executive Council shall be represented at all title and elimination fights by a person(s) appointed at expressly by the President. The WBC representative(s), particularly in mandatory fights, should not be a citizen(s) of any country of the continent where the fight is held unless both boxers are of the same country. The WBC representative should send a report of a title fight to the President and the Secretary General within 72 hours after the fight. The promoter(s) shall provide up to five (5) seats in the technical zone immediately adjacent to the ring for WBC officials and executives. The promoter(s) shall pay the expenses of the WBC representative(s) to the championship fight (not to exceed two (2) including transportation, meals, hotel and other incidental expenses. Any attendance by the WBC President at any championship fight will be in an official capacity, and all of his expenses will be paid by the promoter(s).

XII-19 Presentation of Championship Belt. The WBC Representative in a world title fight shall have the right to demand that the champion at all times enters the ring wearing the championship belt, and it shall be the obligation of the champion to do so under all circumstances. The WBC representative and the chairman of the local federation will present the championship belt to the champion of the world after every fight. Promoters of the championship fight shall provide security and shall organize the ceremony for presentation of the championship belt, and shall require fighters in their fight contracts reasonably to assist so that such presentation can occur in an organized and efficient manner. The luxurious official championship belt shall be rotated and presented to the winner of every championship match, while all champions will be presented permanently with a replica. The WBC will present, for permanent posession, the official belt to champions who keep their championship during three (3) years or 12 defenses of their world title.

XII-20 Appointment of Judges and Referees. The President or the Secretary General of the WBC shall appoint the judges and referees for a championship fight from neutral countries, and the promoter must pay the transportation, room and board and moderate incidentals of the officials appointed to a world title fight. All federations shall register with the Secretary General the most qualified officials who will be part of the WBC World Pool of Referees and Judges. the President or Secretary General of the WBC shall appoint totally neutral judges and referees in all mandatory fights. Neutrality is a city, state, nation or federation not of the birth and/or residence of champion, challenger, judges or referee.

a) Guidelines for Appointment of Officials.

Appointments of officials will be in accordance with the following:

1) In the case of a mandatory title defense, all officials consisting of three juedges and a referee shall be from cities, states, nations or continents which are considered neutral.

For example: two fighters of the same nation can have ring officials of the nation, but of different states of their birth or residence, the same as officials from any other nation of the world, to be considered neutral. Fighters of different nationalities shall have officials different from their nations of birth or residence, and of continents if their continents are different as well.

2) In the case of a champion making a voluntary defense, the ring officials selection will be in accordance with the corresponding agreement in the championship bout contracts, either to appoint ring officials who shall be neutral, or, in the alternative, one judge will come from the country of every one of the fighters, with one judge and the referee being neutral, provided that the ring officials be registered in the WBC.

3) Every single official to participate in a world title fight shall have the approval of the WBC, unalterably. If a bout site is neutral, its boxing commission has the right to appoint the ring officials, but it will need the approval of the WBC, and they shall be all registered in the WBC International World Pool.

XII-21 Examination for Officials. All judges and referees must complete and pass performance, medical, psychiatric and psychological tests conducted by their local federation which shall be delivered to the WBC prior to obtaning certification as a WBC licensed ring official.

XII-22 Fees for Officials. The fees of the officials will be no less than U.S.$ 1,000 for referees and U.S. $ 600 for judges, with $ 2,500 for the referee and $ 1,600 for the judges in heavyweight title fights; provided that the fees shall be $ 600 for the referee and $ 400 for judges in title elimination fights and optional title defenses in divisions below super bantamweight, and further provided that the fees of the judges shall be increased by $ 200 and the fee for the referee shall be increased by $ 250 in any championship match (non-heavyweight) in which the champion is earning a purse of a least $ 100,000. These payments must be made directly by the local boxing commission, with the responsability of supervision by the WBC representative. It is prohibited for promoters to make the payments of the fees directly to the officials.

XII-23 Attire of Officials. All officials in world title fights must wear the official WBC uniform consisting of: black suit, green shirt, black bow tie, boxing shoes and the WBC emblem. Referees will not wear rings, medals or any other metallic material during their performance.

XII-24 Registration of Championship bout Contracts A contract for the world title fight shall be validly certified for the WBC championship only after the WBC's approval indicated byt the signature of the President and/or Secretary General and the stamp of the WBC seal.

XII-25 Inactivity of champion and Interim Championship. When a world champion is inactive for certified medical reasons or for other reasons beyond his control, or if he is unable or unwilling to fight for the championship in accordance with these Rules and Regulations for legal or other reasons, for more than six (6) months but less than one (1) year, the WBC may (without limiting any other remedies or procedures set forth in these Rules and Regulations) vacate the championship and conduct a tournament or a fight for the interim championship; when the ex-champion returns (after having passed all necessary physical examinations of his inactivity was a result of medical reasons) the WBC will order a fight for the undisputed world title, with the interim champion entitled to 50% of the purse of the fight and the ex-champion (as the challenger) intitled to 50% in the event that the fight is promoted through the WBC purse offer procedures.

XII-26 Execution of Championship bout Contracts. Duly authorized managers of the champion and challenger shall be the onle persons entitled to execute a championship bout contract on the part of a boxer; provided, however, that a manager shall not be authorized to sign agreements for a world title fight scheduled to take place after the expiration date of his management contract with the boxer. A contract for a title fight signed by the manager of a fighter shall be accepted only if the boxer, his manager and the promoter of the fight warrant that any existing contract between the boxer and his manager is not for a period of more than five (5) years including all extensions, renewals or options permitted thereunder. Notwithstanding the foregoing. a boxer may execute his own championship contract if he submits a certificate or other written documentation ot the WBC from a local boxing commission or a WBC continental federation that he is not associated with any manager and is free to sign in his own behalf under the responsability of the continental federation. It will be the responsability of the promoters to monitor and certify that bout agreements are signed by the person authorized under these Rules and Regulations.

XII-27 No conflict of Interest. No person is permitted to act concurrently both as a manager of a boxer and a promoter of a WBC championship fight involving the same boxer, and, so as to avoid any potential for a conflict of interests, no fight will be certified by the WBC if any person attempts or purports to act in such dual capacity.

XII-28 Registration of Management Contracts. All contracts between champions, challengers, and their managers (or any other person acting in an equivalent capacity) must be registered in order to be valid and recognized by the WBC at the WBC offices within six (6) months after execution or upon registration of any bout contracts for a WBC certified championship fight involving the boxer. In addition, information as to addresses and telephone numbers for both the fighter and manager must be submitted to the WBC.

XII-29 Report of Knock Outs. a) local boxing commissions and manager of a boxer who suffers a knock out must immediately report such a knock out to the boxing commission or federation which extended a boxing license to the boxer.

b) In order to protect the health and welfare of boxers, all local boxing commissions shall, as a matter of policy, order a complete medical examination, including a brain scan test, and at least sixty (60) days inactivity of a fighter after he has suffered a knock out. The local commission shall order at least one hundred eighty (180) days inactivity in the event a fighter suffers two (2) consecutive knock outs, and at least one (1) year inactivity if the fighter has been knocked out three (3) consecutive times or in three (3) out of his last four (4) fights.

c) In order to protect the health and welfare of boxers, all rated boxer must submit medical examinations in a form satisfactory to the WBC at least one a year, and have periodic medical check-ups at least every six months.

XII-30 Applicability of Championship and Elimination Rules. These championship and elimination rules shall govern all WBC world recognized championship and elimination contests and are entitled to and must receive the full recognition and respect from all champions of the world. The Executive Council may from time to time and when circumstances require promulgate additional championship and elimination rules upon a mejority vote.

XII-31 Enforcement of Championship and Elimination Rules. The Executive Council shall be responsible for the enforcement of these world championship and elimination rules.

XII-32 WBC Exclusive Jurisdiction. The WBC, and not the courts or any other tribunal, is the only body authorized and with jurisdiction to solve problems among promoters, boxers, managers, etc. in relation to the WBC and world title or elimination fights certified by it. By participating in the activities of the WBC, fighters, promoters, managers and other persons involved with boxing accept the foregoing and urdestand and agree that the WBC has procedures for resolution of all problems or disputes, and that such procedures will be implemented exclusively if any such disputes or problems arise. In the event, any boxer, promoter, manager, or other person involved with the WBC institutes a lawsuit or any other legal action against the WBC for any reason, and such lawsuit or other legal action is unsuccesful in any respect, the WBC shall be entitled to recover all costs of litigation, including reasonable attorney's fees, from the unsuccessful party who initiated such lawsuit or other legal action.

ARTICLE XIII - RULES FOR WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP FIGHTS

The following are the duly adopted and agreed to rules for the WBC world championship fight of____weight____pounds (____Kgs.), between the champion____of ____nationality, and the contender ___ of _____ nationality, on the day_____ of the month___ of the year___.

XIII-1 Championship fights shall be governed by the Rules and Regulations of the boxing commission where the fight is held and will be supervised by the commissioner designated by the local commission and the WBC representative(s), who must be given seats by the promoter in the technical zone next to the ring.
Nevertheless, the following rules must be respected and adhered to in order to have the official recognition of the World Boxing Council as a world title fight.

XIII-2 The contract for the fight must be registered in the WBC and approved and authorized by the President and/or Secretary General, and all other requirements contained in these Rules and Regulations must be complied with, including but not limited to payment of championship certification fees from the purses of the boxers, payment of promotional fees, submission of all boxer's medical examinations and reports, and arrangements by the promoter for insurance coverage for the boxers as provided in the WBC Rules and Regulations.

XIII-2 (a) In order to preserve, and protect the health and welfare of boxers who will compete in fights that receive championship certification by the WBC both the champion and challenger must submit complete and current, i.e., no more than four (4) months old medical reports or certificates of the fighter's medical condition to the governing WBC continental federation al least four (4) weeks before the fight and to the local commission having jurisdiction over the fight not less than eight (8) days before the fight. Such medical records must include a current electrocardiogram and electroencephalogram.

XIII-3 The ring doctor appointed by the local commission or WBC shall have a seat in the technical zone next to the local commissioner and WBC representative or there shall be one doctor in each boxer's corner.

XIII-4 Both boxers shall be present during the weigh-in ceremony at____hrs. of_____ (day) of ___(month) of ___(year), in ___(place).

XIII-4 (a) The weigh-in for all WBC certified world title fights shall be held not earlier that twelve (12) hours and not later than eight (8) hours prior to the commencement of the boxing card. The local commission shall select the best scale and firmest place for maximum accuracy in the weights. Immediately after the weigh-in, both boxers shall be examined by the local commission doctor; the referee shall also take a medical examination with the commission doctor prior to the fight.

XIII-5 Both boxers will not exceed the weight of_____pounds or _____kilograms. If one of the boxers exceeds such weight, he will be allowed two (2) hours to make the weight by weighing in as many times as he desires.

XIII-6 If the world champion exceeds the official weight limit in his last time weighing in within the two hour period, he will lose the title on the scale; however, this fight will take place for the 15 rounds. If the challenger was within the official weight and wins the fight, he will be declared the new champion but if the ex-champion wins the fight, the title will be declared vacant.

If both fighters exceed the official weight, the fight will no take place for the world title, which will be declared vacant. The promoter will have the option to conduct the fight even though both fighters are overweight but it will not be for the world title. In all cases, the local commission and the WBC reserve the right to impose penalties upon overweight fighters.

XIII-7 The title fight will be 15 rounds of three (3) minutes of action and one (1) minute of rest between the end of one round and the beginning of the next.

XIII-8 The scoring system will be a 10 points must. All score card will be independent for each round, and the chief Commissioner of the fight will make the additions after every round, in the WBC special concentration sheets. There will be three judges who will each score the fight, and a non-scoring referee.

XIII-9 In the event that one boxer is legally knocked down several times in one round, the fight will porceed if, in the discretion of the referee, the boxer is not seriously hurt and he is still in good condition to continue. The fight will be stopped, however, at the first legal knock down, or at any time, when the referee considers that the boxer is hurt and his health is in danger.

XIII-10 In the event that a boxer is legally knocked dowm, he will receive an eight second protection count. No standing counts without a knock down are allowed. If a boxer is knocked to the floor outside of the ring as a result of a legal punch, he will receive a count of twenty (20) seconds to return, without help from his corner, standing in the ring. If he fails to return within such twenty (20) seconds, the fight will be stopped and he will lose the match.

XIII-10 (a) In the event of a legal knock down, the referee must order the standing fighter to a neutral corner, and the fighter must remain there until the referee orders him to resume fighting. If such fighter leaves the neutral corner before he is called to fight, the referee will interrupt the count and will not resume the count again until the fighter returns to the neutral corner. When the referee interrupts and then resumes his count in accordance with the foregoing, he will commence at the same second where the count stood at the time of interruption.
XIII-11 the bell not save a boxer who has been knocked down, except in the last round. If a boxer is knocked down by a clean punch at the end of the round, the referee will continue the count and will declare him the loser by knock out if he does not get up unassisted before the count of ten (10) seconds.

the time keeper will ring the bell to indicate the ond of the round at the precise moment when the boxer gets up.

XIII-12 The gloves will be 6 to 8 ounces up to welterweight and no less than 8 ounces or heavier than 10 ounces in the superior weights; provided, however, that the weight of gloves must be in accordance with local boxing commission rules and not in violation of any contractual agreement between the fighters which is consistent with the foregoing WBC regulations. The gloves used in the fight must be approved by the local commission and the WBC.

XIII-13 the bandages will be put on in the dressing rooms under the supervision of the local commission and one second of the contending boxer.

Unless otherwise, bandages must be of crepe or gauze, and no more than five meters long and five cm. wide for each hand. The adhesive tape should be one meter long and 2.50 cm wide for each hand. this adhesive tape will onle be placed on the dorsum of the hand and not on the knuckles which must be protected only by the bandages. The use of water or any other liquid or material on the bandages is prohibited.

Because the permissible bandage material and adhesive tape are sometimes insufficient to best protect the hands of the boxers, they may both agree to alternative bandaging under the strict supervision and approval of the local commission, which will make the final decision as to any such alternative bandaging.

XIII-14 It is absolutely prohibited for a boxer to drink anything but water during the fight, and any use of drugs, stimulants, etc., during or before the fight will be sufficient cause for disqualification of a boxer and/or other disciplinary measures.

The antidoping tests will be mandatory for every WBC certified world title fight. When a site for a title fight has no antidoping testing facilities, a nearby city will be used. If there is no lab available, the WBC will order a neutral doctor no supervise and take all antidoping test samples. Two urine sample bottles from each one of the boxers shall be taken.

XIII-15 Only vaseline, used under the discretion of the referee, and nothing else, will be allowed on the face, arms, or any part of the body of a boxer during a fight. No smelling salts, ammonia or other substances may be administered to revive a boxer or for anu other reason during a fight. In case of a cut, only a solution of adrenalin 1/1000 shall be used in the corner to attend to the cut. Containers containing the adrenalin 1/1000 solution and water shall be provided to the corners by the local doctor or brought into the corners by handlers under the strict supervision and authorization of the WBC or the local commission, and no other bottles or containers shall be allowed or used in the corners during the fight. Any other solution or substance is prohibited. The corner shall use only a) water, b) vaseline, c) ice, d) adrenalin 1/1000 substance, e) gauze pads, f) cotton tips, g) blunted scissors, h) adhesive tape, i) towels, j) cotton wads, and/or soft bandages during the fight.

XIII-16 The referee, in case of a cut, will consult with the ring doctor to determine if the fight should be stopped. If the chief second is in disagreement with the opinion of the ring doctor, he can so state, but the ring doctor is the highest authority in medical problems and the referee should ordinarily follow his recommendation, although the referee is at all times the only person authorized to stop the fight.

XIII-16 (a) When cuts are produced by an intentional butt which causes a fight to be immediately stopped, the butted fighter will win by disqualification.

XIII-16 (b) When a cut is produced by a legal punch which causes the fight to be stopped, the wounded boxer will lose by technical knock out, inscribed in his record as a TKOC to show loss by reason of the cut.

XIII-16 (c) When a cut is produced or enlarged by a butt, the referee must stop the action to inform the judges and acknowledge the butt. If, in the referee's or the doctor's opinion, the fighter can continue, there shall be an automatic deduction of two (2) points from the butting fighter in the case of an intentional butt and an automatic deduction of one point from the uncut fighter in the case of an accidental butt, with the referee in his judgment determining whether a butt is intentional or accidental. If the fight is stopped in later rounds by the same cut enlarged by clean blows, a technical decision will result and the winner will be the boxer who is ahead on points at the time the fight is stopped. If a cut that has been produced by a butt is enlarged and the fight stopped by another butt, the wounded fighter will win by disqualification.

When a cut is produced by an accidental butt which causes the fight to be stopped immediately, the winner will be the boxer who is ahead on points at the time the fight is stopped, after deducting points from the fighter who committed the butt at the instruction of the referee. In the case of cuts by an accidental butt occurring up to the third round which causes the fight to be stopped immediately, the fight will be a technical draw.

XIII-16 (d) Except as provided in the following there will be no disqualification on fouls to the body. The referee will order points deducted when appropriate for either repeated or serious fouls, and will give all necessary time for recovery to the boxer who is hurt.If the injured boxer does not continue the fight, he will lose by abandonment. However, in cases of very clear or extreme or continuous intentional low fouls, after warnings by the referee, disquialification may be ordered by the referee, who if such boxer rebels against his authority, but only if the ring doctor determines that the fight should be stopped.

XIII-17 No bandlers or cornerman shall interfere with a boxer who has been knocked down, unless asked by the referee.

XIII-18 It is the duty of the medical officer to have portable resuscitator or similar facilities available in good working order, and to examine the boxers with no exception, after the fight to issue a written medical statement about their condition. The local boxing commission medical officer shall update each boxer's international boxing license after the fight. There shall be an ambulance parked in a free accesible place, one hour before, until one hour after the boxing show is over.

XIII-19 Each boxer is allowed to have three (3) seconds, with one more acting as an assistant on the floor but not in the ring. One second must be the chief second and responsible for the behavior of the others, and he is the only one who can work inside the ropes during the rest periods. The referee must be informed before the fight of the chief second.

XIII-20 All fouls recognized by all boxing authorities shall be penalized firmly, with strong warnings and with a one point deduction after three warnings on the same intentional foul, at the discretion of the referee.

XIII-21 If a boxer drops his mouth protector during a round he must continue without it for the remainder of the round, but no round may commence without mouth protectors on both fighters. Two mouth pieces be required in each corner, in order to have better protection and cleanliness and hygiene.

XIII-21 (a) The local commission must have a replacement set of gloves for each fight.

XIII-22 The local commission must satisfy itself before the contest that the ring is equipped with and approved safety mat; that the size of the ring shall be no smaller than 18 feet on each side and no larger than 24 feet on each side; that the ring apron extending beyond the ropes is at least 36 inches; that the ring ropes are four in number and not less than one inch in diameter; that the ropes are hung to a normal tightness and wrapped securely in soft material; and that no extraneous accesories such as benches, buckets and microphones are placed where a boxer might be hurt as a result.

XIII-23 The champion_____will wear the trunks of _____color, and the challenger_____ will wear trunks of ___color.

XIII-24 The corner of_____color will be for the champion, and the corner of ____color will be for the challenger. The other two corners shall be "white" as the neutral corners.

XIII-25 Both boxers shall be present in the dressing rooms at the fight location at least one hour before the contest commences. Only the boxers' authorized representatives, boxing commissioners and commission doctors will be allowed in the dressing rooms before the fight; no newspaper, television and/or radio reporters or other press figures or any other unauthorized persons, who are not either the boxer's official team or WBC or local officials, will be permitted in the dressing rooms before the fight, during the time that the champion and challenger enter their dressing rooms.

XIII-26 In the event of a problem or dispute relating to a subject not covered in these Rules and Regulations, or in the event that both boxers have not agreed on a matter which requires their agreement hereunder, the local commission shall issue a decision on the problem, dispute or other matter with consultation and approval by the WBC representative; provided, however, that a final decision on any such problem, dispute or other matter will be made by the WBC Executive Council in the event of continued disagreement.

XIII-27 The local commission, with the assistance of the WBC representative when necessary, shall assure that payments to managers and boxers are made separately by ckeck with 67% or 70% for the boxer and 33% or 30% for the manager, except in cases when prohibited by law or other agreement of the parties.

XIII-28 It is strictly prohibited for the corners to throw sponges, towels or any other object, but such conduct shall not be a cause to stop the fight. It is also prohibited to deliberately mutiliate the gloves of a boxer between rounds to give him relief, and whoever does so, will be subject to fine or suspension by the WBC.

XIII-28 (a) The referee has the authority to instruct the head cornermen of their duties and responsibilities during the fight, including all medical requirements such as the substances which may be applied to cuts under these Rules and Regulations, and he shall have the authority to inspect and confiscate any substance, material and/or equipment used in a corner that he believes might be in violation of these rules.

XIII-29 A beard on a fighter will only be accepted if its tickness is not considered a cushion, or that it could cause a cut or hurt over a cut over his rival. He decision will be of the responsability of the local commission.

XIII-30 For record purposes when a fighter is stopped by his corner, the doctor or the referee, during the resting period, he will lose by TKO in the following round.

XIII-31 The violation of any of these championship rules will be a legal cause for disqualification of the fighter and loss of the fight.

XIII-32 Only managers with legal contracts, or those with written authorization with boxers shall sign these rules. If not, only the boxers themselves shall sign them. In any case no boxer can claim lack of ackowledge of them.

XIII-33 The world champion will wear the championship belt when coming into the ring, which will be given to the referee, and him to the WBC representative. At the end of the fight before the result is announced, the WBC representative and the chairman of the local boxing commission, or his representantive, shall be invited to the ring, to immediately proceed with the championship belt ceremony. The commissioners shall escort the flags when national anthoms are played.

XIII-34 In the event of a problem, rule or dispute relating to a subject not covered in these Rules, or in the event that both boxers have not agreed on a matter which requires their agreement hereunder, the local commission shall issue a decision on the problem, dispute or other matter with consultation and approval by the WBC representative; provided however, that a final decision on any such problem, dispute, or other matter will be made by the WBC Executive Council in the event of continued disagreement, as it is the WBC Executive Council the higher body for a final decision on WBC world championship recognition.

ARTICLE XIV - PURSE OFFER MANDATORY BOXING CONTEST PROCEDURES

XIV-1 The continental federations shall submit to the President or to the Secretary General of the WBC a list of promoters from their federations who will be solicited for participation and bids in purse offer contests. This list shall be updated by the continental-federations on an annual basis.

XIV-2 The WBC shall notify the fighters of all mandatory championship defense and title elimination fights. When a champion has been notified by the WBC to meet with # 1 challenger or the highest available challenger as provided for in the WBC championship defense rules, or a championship has been vacated, and the contenders have been named and notified, there shall be a period of thirty (30) days following such notice to permit the parties to negotiate and finalize a contract for a match. Should the parties fail to conclude negotiations during the thirty (30) day period and so notify the WBC President or the Secretary General, the period of free negotiations shall be closed. The purse offer regulations and procedures, including without limitation the respective percentages of the fight purse payable to the champion and challenger, will not be effective or may be notified in special or unusual cases when it is so agreed by the votes of two-thirds of the Executive Council.

XIV-3 Should the aforesaid thirty (30) day free negotiation deadline not be met by submission of a signed bout contract via registered mail or personal presentation to the local commission continental federation and WBC, the WBC President or the Secretary General will ask for purse offers for the championship match from all promoters n the WBC promoter list. Notifications of the purse offer will be made by cable, in writing or telephone to the promoters and to the continental federations. The continental federations will advise their affiliate boxing commissions of the request for bids. The request for bids will indicate the date, time and place for the opening of the sealed envelopes containing the promoter's bids for the championship bout.

XIV-4 All purse offers must be personally delivered to the World Boxing Council offices, or omission excepted, must be forwarded via registered mail, or through any other means to go to the World Boxing Council directly.
However, the offer must be filed with the World Boxing Council within fifteen (15) days after the date when the free negotiation period was closed and purse offer solicited by the WBC receipt of a bid by the WBC shall be acknowledged by the WBC by cables to both the promoter and appropriate continental federation. the purse offer shall be closed exactly fifteen (15) days after commencement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the President in his discretion, may accept written telexes, telegrams and confirming phone calls from participating promoters in lieu of written letters containing and confirming purse offer bids.

XIV-5 Promoters wishing to participate in bidding for the championship contest shall include in their bid the following:

a) The total dollar offer for the participants in US dollars with the acknwoledgement that said total purse offer shall be net and completely free of any tax in excess of the national and/or local taxes payable by the visiting boxer in his home country. The dollar offer and payment by a promoter of said sum to the fighters shall be fully guaranteed by a letter of credit of a bank or a performance bond acceptable in form and substance to the WBC. The promoter must also submit a letter of guarantee that the boxing authorities where the fight shall take place, will respect the WBC regulations, and, will accept neutral officials

b) A guarantee that he will pay travel and accommodatio expenses for three (3) persons for each participant (the three persons include the boxer).

c) A statement as to whether he will attend the opening of the sealed bids at the time, date and place established by the WBC solicitation and/or the name of his designated representative, if any, who will be present at the opening of the bids.

d) Proposed contracts to be forwarded to the interested parties for signature, (six copies for each boxer). The contracts shall specify the date and place on which the contest will be held, shall be fully in accordance with all WBC Rules and Regulations, and shall reflect a division of money involved consistent with Article XIV-9, or such other division required or ordered by the WBC as provided hereunder.

XIV-6 The licensed promoter making the highest fixed monetary offer of compensation shall be awarded the championship match. Income projections that are contingent or statements that a promoter will bid a percentage or dollar amount over the bid by other promoters will not be considered. The interested boxers, the champion and challenger, or the two co-challengers in the event of a vacant title or elimination fight, are compelled to accept this offer and participate in the championship match or forfeit their rights to be either champion or challenger. Each fighter must receive his full purse, or its equivalent established by the purse offer, and the WBC may investigate possible violations of these Rules and Regulations when requested or required.

XIV-6 (a) The winning promoter of the purse offer must, within eight days after the purse offer date, deposit with the WBC 10% of the total amount of his offer. The deposit will be returned to the promoter or credited at the time of the title fight. In case the promoter does not promote the fight, he will forfeit the 10% to the champion and contender, distributed 75% and 25% respectively, (except where another division of proceeds has been required or is applicable) net of all WBC expenses. The 10% deposit may be made at a local WBC continental federation with the express authorization of the President or Secretary General.

XIV-6 (b) If a visiting boxer will be taxed in his home country, the promoter must provide him with a certified tax receipt or certificate from the national and/or local taxing authority where the fight takes place for presentation as a credit to the taxing authority in the fighter's home country. The promoter must also post a bond or other sufficient indemnity to assure that the taxes imposed at the location where the fight took place will be reimbursed to the fighter if the certified tax receipt or certificate is not accepted as a tax credit by the taxing authority in the fighter's home country. Said bond or other indemnity will not be cancelled until the boxer's tax liability in his home country resulting from the fight is discharged. It shall be the obligation of boxers to report and prove that taxes will be payable by him in his home country.

XIV-7 The WBC President and/or Secretary General shall notify the promoter and his continental federation by cable of his victory in the purse offer procedure. The continental federation shall notify the appropriate affiliated commission of the promoter's winning the purse offer to the match.

XIV-8 The purse offer winning promoter shall take personally or forward via registered air mail six (6) copies of the winning promoter's contract to each boxer for proper signature. The participants and other necessary parties shall sign the contract and have their signatures witnessed. The signed contracts shall be sent via registered air mail to the WBC President and/or Secretary General, the continental federation with jurisdiction over the fight and the promoter within fifteen (15) days after opening the sealed bids. Each boxer and his manager are to retain one copy each.

XIV-8 (a) If the champion does not sign the contracts within eight days after opening of the sealed bids and/or refuses to participate in the fight for the promoter who won the purse offer under the terms set forth herein, he may be subject to discipline such as having his championship recognition withdraw and the title declared vacant. If the contender refuses to sign contracts and/or to fight, the WBC may designate a substitute and/or take such other measures as are appropriate under the circumstances.

XIV-9 The net purse offer shall be divided as follows:

a) 75% for the champion and 25% for the contender when fights shall be held in the home country of the champion or in a neutral country.

b) 80% for the champion and 20% for the challenger when the fight will be held in the contender's home country.

In vacant titles, the purse offer shall be divided at 50% for each contender.

Notwithstanding the terms of subparagraphs (a) and (b) above, the WBC Executive Council may in its discretion, modify the division of proceeds between fighters in a purse offer in unusual or special cases.

XIV-9 (a) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary which may be contained in these Rules and Regulations, if a promoter holds a duly registered, binding, and approved option for a championship fight with a champion, or, in the case of a vacant title, with a championship contender, but is 1) unable to finalize a contract for a mandatory championship fight within the time period prescribed in Article XIV-2 and 2) is unsuccessful in an attempt to win the purse offer for the fight, such promoter shall be entitled to payment of an amount equal to 25% of the sum by which the purse from the purse offer guaranteed to the fighter with whom the promoter holds an option exceeds the purse that was guaranteed to the fighter under the option or any higher amount that had been offered to such fighter by the promoter during free contract negotiations. The sum payable to such promoter shall, however, in no event exceed $ 50,000. Under such circumstances, it shall be the obligation of the promoter who wins the purse, to pay all monies payable to a promoter under this rule, if any, directly to such promoter at the same time that purses are paid to the fighters for the championship bout. For example, if a promoter has a valid option on a champion for guaranteed $ 100,000 purse and no higher purse was offered to the fighter by the promoter during the contract negotiations, and if the champion is guaranteed $ 200,000 in the purse offer bid won by another promoter, the promoter holding the option would be entitled to payment of $ 25,000, which is 25% of the excess of the purse offer ($200,000) over his option ($ 100,000).

XIV-10 If only one promoter presents a bid in a purse offer, he will be allowed to promote the fight, unless the Executive Council considers the offer so low that it would be detrimental to the best interests of the boxers, in which case the WBC will undertake efforts to improve the boxer's purses.

XIV-10 (a) If a promoter who won the purse offer relinquishes the right or refuses to promote the championship fight, the promotion will be approved for the promoter who made the second highest purse offer; provided, however, that if, in the discretion of the Executive Council, the offer is too low, or there was no other participant, the WBC shall order initiation of another purse offer procedure.

XIV-11 The match shall take place within ninety (90) days of the date of the opening of the purse offers, unless said time limit is changed or modified by the WBC Executive Council.

XIV-12 the WBC Executive Council reserves the right to refuse any purse offer if deemed to be too low. If the event of identical high bids, new offers will be taken from those promoters who submitted the identical high bids, or they may copromote if the promoters agree. New bids can be taken in the same purse offer meeting if the interested parties are present.

XIV-13 The President and/or Secretary General will have the authority to solve, consider and determine all matters or problems regarding purse offers not included in these regulations or to take action or render decisions, in their discretion, in any other circumstance relating to administration or performance of the purse offer procedure.

XIV-14 Promoters, matchmakers and other persons who are in arrears in the payment of the yearly licensing/authorization fees or championship match fees or WBC certification fees provided hereunder, or who have been suspended or expelled from participation in the activities of the WBC, shall not have the right to present bids or any WBC authorized purse offer.

ARTICLE XV - REGULATIONS FOR THE WBC CHAMPIONSHIP BELT

XV-1 The World Boxing Council will provide championship belts for the world champions of all the divisions.

XV-2 The championship belts will be provided by the donation of the promoters who promote the world championship bouts or other approved donors and will be the property of the World Boxing Council.

XV-3 The championship belts will be left under the responsability of the federation where the champion resides, with the belt being left with the champion himself if his continental federation so authorizes but with the champion making a deposit of the value of said belt. The World Boxing Council on its expense shall deliver a replica to the world champion to be kept in his possesion permanently. The luxurious official WBC belt must be presented in the ring to the winner of the fight and of the championship.

XV-4 The luxurious official WBC belt for world champions, will be of the exclusive ownership of the WBC, and must be presented to whoever wins a world championship. To lose the championship means to lose the luxurious belt, but an exact replica of a different material, will be of the ownership permanently of whoever wins a championship.

XV-5 Any world champion who holds the world title for four years or makes 12 defenses of his title, will be presented in a special ceremony with the luxurious official WBC championship belt to be kept permanently by him. Three years of a world championship will merit a special WBC honor placque.

XV-6 The world champion in all the divisions must wear the championship belt when he goes in the ring for every defense of his world title; if he does not wear the championship belt, he will be fined and will be subject to other discipline which may be imposed by the WBC and the local continental federation. The champion will take off the belt just before the fight starts and will give it to the referee. The referee will give the championship belt to the representative of the WBC present at the contest.

XV-7 At the end of the contest, the representative of the WBC and the President of the local commission where the fight took place will go in the ring to present the world championship belt to the champion on behalf of the WBC Executive council.

ARTICLE XVI-ANTIDOPING REGULATIONS

XVI-1 Antidoping Test Required. The antidoping tests are mandatory for every world title fight. When a site for a title fight has no antidoping facilities, a nearby city will be used. The WBC may print a form setting forth the antidoping tests and procedures and attach it to registered contracts mailed to champions and challengers.

XVI-2 Contractual Obligations. The contracts for championship fights with both the champion and the challenger shall include a clause setting forth the agreement of each fighter not to take, imbibe, or have administered to him any of the drugs prohibited by the WBC in these Rules and Regulations in any manner that will or could possibly affect his performance in the ring.

XVI-3 Doctors. The local commission will specifically appoint a doctor to supervise and administer the antidoping test. Where there is no local laboratory available, the WBC will order a neutral doctor to travel to supervise the antidoping tests and take all necessary samples.

XVI-4 Administration of Antidoping Tests. Each local commission shall determine the mechanics for implementing the antidoping test, but the following measures are required:

a) The antidoping test shall be made from the urine of the contending boxers immediately after the fight in the dressing room or place designated by the doctor.

b) The urine of each boxer shall be placed in two separate bottles within the presence of both fighters' representatives, the doctor in charge and any neutral doctor chosen by the fighters for supervision. The bottles shall be appropriately sealed to avoid any possible violation or opening and shall have the signatures of the manager of the boxer, the doctors and/or the local or WBC commissioner affixed to them.

c) The first bottle will be used for a first test performed independently by the laboratory designed specifically for the tests. If the test results are negative, the results shall be filed and the other bottle of urine of he fighter destroyed.

d) If one or both of the first tests of the fighters are positive, the parties will be immediately informed and permitted to have their neutral doctors, if they wish to do so, personally supervise the test on bottle # 2 to ckeck the results with the first test. If the results from the second test are the same as the first, the positive results will be confirmed.

e) The responsability to conduct such tests will be shared by the local commission, the applicable continental federation and the WBC representative. The results of the antidoping tests should be known within 72 hours after the fights take place and the urine samples are obtained.

XVI-5 Failure to Take Antidoping Test. The local boxing commission should notify all fighters that they must submit to the antidoping control test at the end of the match in the dressing rooms of the boxing arena, and if they do not submit to such a test, they will be disqualified, fined or suspended.

XVI-6 Prohibited Drugs. The following list of drugs taken in any form shall be prohibited in addition to any other drugs that in the future might be found dangerous to the health of boxers and those drugs prohibited in the regulation of the International Olympic Committee (IOC) and the International Soccer Federation (FIFA).

Amfetamina	Metameftamina	Etilamfetamina
Fenfluramina	Fentermina	Metossifenamina
Mefentermina	Benzefetamina	Dimetamfetamina
Norfenfluramina	Aletamina	Clorfentermina

Ciclofentamina	Metilfenidato	Pipradol
Propilesedrina	Facetoperano	Mefenmetrazina
Modalina	Pipetanato	Fenmetrazina
Pendimetrazina	Dietilpropione	Prolintane
Provalerona	Pemolina	Tranilcipramina
Fencamfamina	Furfurilamfetamina
Furfurilmetilamfetamina		Cepenamina
Norefedrina	Etilefedrina	Benzefedrina
Pseudoefedrina	Metilefedrina	Efedrina
Norpseudoefedrina

XVI-7 Notification to WBC of Administration of Drugs. No drugs shall be allowed or administered for diet control or for any other reason, as there are many appropriate and adequate medicine substitutes without drug content, and in any case where a boxer has been subject to any medication, this should be reported to the WBC, and the local commission at the time of taking such medication, before the championship fight takes place.

XVI-8 Sanctions for Positive Antidoping Test Results.

a) If the world champion wins the fight, and his antidoping test results are positive, the title will be declared vacant and the challenger (whose antidoping tests were negative) will be appointed to meet another contender chosen by the WBC for the vacant world title, unless the challenger performance was unworthy.

b) If the challenger loses the championship fight and his antidoping tests are positive, he will not be allowed to fight for a WBC recognized world title during the two following years.

c) If the challenger wins the championship fight and his antidoping tests are positive and the losing champion's tests are negative, then the champion will keep the title despite the defeat, and the challenger will not be allowed to fight for a WBC recognized world title during the two following years.

d) If the results of an antidoping tests of both fighters are positive, the title will be declared vacant and the WBC will appoint two contenders to fight for the vacant title or will fill such vacant title in any other manner that the Executive Council deems appropriate. Neither fighter whose antidoping tests are positive shall be allowed to fight for a WBC recognized world title during the following two years.

XVII - DISCIPLINARY PROCEDURES AND APPEALS PROCEDURES

XVII-1 Suspension, Expulsion and Lesser Penalties.

a) Grounds for Suspension, Expulsion and Lesser Penalties. The WBC shall have the right to suspend, for a definite or indefinite period of time, depending on the circumstances, to expel, to fine and/or to otherwise penalize any member of any committee or subcommittee of the WBC if such person or organization has 1) contravened any of the Constitution, Rules and Regulations of the WBC or 2) made an affirmative misrepresentation or actively concealed material facts from the WBC or any of its committess or officers, 3) made or published any false and defamatory statements concerning the WBC or its officers,

4) materially breached contractual commitments relating to the WBC or in the conduct of such person's activities in the sport of boxing, 5) been formally charged or convicted of a criminal offense (provided that only suspension is permitted in the case of a formal charge prior to conviction), or 6) acted in any other manner (such as participation in illegal gambling or fight fixing or manipulation) which tends to bring disrepute upon the WBC, its officers or the sport of boxing.

b) Not applicable to withdrawal or suspension of Championship Recognition. The provisions of this rule regarding the imposition of discipline are not applicable to any decision by the WBC or the Executive Council regarding championship defense obligations or championship recognition (or withdrawal or suspension thereof) which matters and decisions are governed elsewhere in these Rules and Regulations.

c) Immediate Disciplinary Action.

1) Notice of Discipline. The WBC in its discretion, may impose immediate disciplinary sanctions without formal review of evidence or a hearing when it is established to the good faith satisfaction of the WBC that probable cause exists to believe that any person or entity against whom such discipline is imposed has committed one or more of the offenses set forth in Article XVII-1 (a). Any discipline imposed hereunder shall be effective upon notification by the WBC to the person or entity against whom such discipline is imposed.

2) Demand for Review. Upon receipt of such notice by any person or entity disciplined, he, she or it may demand in writing, within thirty (30) days after receipt of said notice, an opportunity to review the action of the WBC in which the affected person or entity will be permitted to present evidence or facts on his, her or its behalf. Said demand shall be sent to the official office of the WBC with a copy to the office of the WBC General legal Counsel, Shearer, Fields & Shearer, 9255 Sunset Boulevard, Suite 616, Los Angeles, California. 90069. Said demand shall set forth the facts and documentary evidence demonstrating why the offending person or entity should not be disciplined or why the discipline imposed should be modified or reduced.

3) Request for Stay of discipline. Said written demand may request that the WBC exercise its discretion to stay the discipline pending a final determination by it of the discipline, if any, to be imposed upon the affected person or entity. Any request for such a stay should be included in said written demand and should set forth the basis and justification for such a stay.

4) Consideration of Case and Hearing. The aforesaid written demand made by the affected person or entity, shall be considered by a disciplinary panel comprised of the Chairman of the Disciplinary Committee (or his designated substitute or nominee) and two other persons designated by the Chairman.

It shall be within the discretion of the Chairman of the Disciplinary Committee (or his designated substitute or nominee) whether to order an oral hearing on the matter based on the facts and circumstances of each case.

If an oral hearing is ordered, within thrity (30) days after receipt by the WBC of the aforesaid written demand, the person disciplined shall be notified of the date and a location when and where such hearing will occur. Such an oral hearing shall, if reasonably possible, be set for a date not more than sixty (60) days after receipt of such written demand from the disciplined person. Said oral hearing may be continued from time to time for good cause shown upon the application of the disciplined person, who shall have the right to have legal counsel of his choice represent him at the hearing. The Disciplinary Panel, in its consideration of the case and as circumstances may warrant, may request written or oral statements or testimony from other interested parties or witnesses.

5) Decision by WBC Board of Discipline. Upon the aforesaid written demand, after consideration of the case, the disciplinary panel shall make findings and recommendations as to whether the immediate discipline imposed against the affected person or entity under this rule should be terminated, continued, modified, or reduced in any manner to the WBC Board of Discipline as soon after consideration of the matter as is reasonably possible; provided, however, that if an oral hearing has been held, such findings and recommendations shall be presented to the WBC Board of Discipline not later that twenty (20) days after such hearing.

The WBC Board of Discipline shall make the decision with respect to the imposition of discipline by a majority vote, taken within a reasonable period of time after submission of the findings and recommendations of the disciplinary panel; provided, however, that the WBC Board of Discipline shall make its order within thirty (30) days after the submission of findings and recommendations by the disciplinary panel.

d) Non-Immediate Disciplinary Action.

1) Initiation. Disciplinary proceedings for violation of one or more of the offenses set forth in Article XVII-1 (a) of this rule may be initiated by the WBC upon the recommendation or complaint of any member of the Executive Council, fighter, promoter, matchmaker, manager, or any other person or organization participating in the activities of the WBC by notifying the person charged of the charges against him or her.

2) Notification and Hearing. It shall be within the discretion of the Chairman of the Disciplinary Committee (or his designated substitute or nominee) whether to order and oral hearing based on the facts and circumstances of each case. Such charges are to considered by a disciplinary panel comprised of the chairman of the Disciplinary Committee and two other persons designated by the Chairman (or his substitute or nominee). If a hearing is to be held, the person charged shall be notified of a date and a location when and where such hearing will occur, and at which said person is requested to appear. The charged person shall have the right to have legal counsel of his choice to represent him at the hearing. The person charged shall answer in writting to the charges and such written answer of the person charged.

3) Written Answer to Charges. Shall 1) admit or deny whether the charges are correct, and 2) set forth the charged person's version of all relevant facts and documentary evidence. Such written answer must be delivered to the Chairman of the Disciplinary Committee, with a copy to the general counsel of the WBC, Shearer, Fields & Shearer, 9255 Sunset Boulevard, suite 616, Los Angeles, California, 90067, by mail no later than forty-five (45) days after notification of the charges, or, if a hearing is to be held, at least thirty (30) days prior to the date of hearing.

4) Consideration of Case and Findings and Recommendations. The disciplinary panel, in its consideration of the case and as circumstances may warrant, any request written or oral statements or testimony from other interested parties or witnesses after consideration of the charges against the charged person or organization, the disciplinary panel shall make findings and recommendations as to the appropriate discipline, if any, to be imposed under this rule to the WBC Board of Discipline. The disciplinary panel may in its discretion, make such findings and recommendations even though the charged person failed to respond in writting or refused to appear in opposition to the charges. The WBC Board of Discipline shall make the decision with respect to discipline by a majority vote take as soon as possible after submission of the findings and recommendations if any, of the disciplinary panel.

XVII-2 WBC Board of Discipline. In each instance where discipline has been imposed or disciplinary proceedings have been initiated under Article XVII-1 (c) (d), such matters will be reviewed and decided upon by the WBC Board of Discipline, which shall be composed of the President of the WBC, each Vice-President of the WBC and the Chairman of the WBC Grievance and Appeals Committee. No member of the disciplinary panel as set forth in Article XVII-1 (c) (d) and no person making the complaint or charges against the person disciplined shall be a member of the Board of Discipline. In addition. no member of the disciplinary panel, no person making the complaint or charges against the person disciplined, and no person voting as member shall vote in the review of any decision hereunder by the Executive Council under Article XVII-3. The board of Discipline shall have the authority to render any decision in the disciplinary proceedings or to act in any manner appropriate under the circumstances. The President of the WBC shall act as chairman of the Board of Discipline without a vote except in case of a tie.

XVII-3 Review of Decisions.

a) Petition of Review. Any person or organization (the "petitioner") dissatisfied with any interpretation, action or decision of the WBC, its officers, the Executive Council, or any committee of the WBC, including a decision rendered under Rule XVII-1 (c) (d) of this Article, may seek review from the - adverse determination by timely submission of a written petition to the President or Secretary General of the WBC (but no more than thirty (30) days after the effective date of said action or decision). The petition shall state the reason for dissatisfaction, recite the facts to be reviewed and the relief sought, and be accompanied by a record, if available, of all proceedings, including any documents to be considered on review.

b) Not Applicable to Decisions Regarding Withdrawal or Suspension of championship Recognition. The provisions of this rule regarding the review of decisions shall not be applicable to or available for review of decisions rendered by the WBC or the Executive council in conecction with champion - ship recognition (or withdrawal or suspension thereof), which matters and decisions are governed elsewhere in these Rules and Regulations.

c) Petition Fee. Every petition must be accompanied by a U.S. $ 250.00 fee which will be returned if the petition is upheld but forfeited if the petition is rejected or abandoned.

d) Consideration. The WBC, in its consideration of the case and as circumstances may warrant, any request written or oral statements or testimony from other interested parties and witnesses. The final determination of the appeal, as provided herein, shall lie with the WBC Executive Council upon a majority vote; provided that in cases of review of discipline imposed under Article XVII-1 (c) (d), the determination shall be made by a majority of those Executive Council members entitled to vote. The Executive Council may vacate, modify, sustain or reverse any mandate or decision properly submitted for review, or remand the matter for further action to any committee or other persons, may review any suspension or expulsion or imposition of other discipline, and may assess all of the costs and expenses for the review procedure against the petitioner if he. is unsuccessful.

e) Hearing. An oral hearing shall be discretionary. Since the Executive Council customarily mets only once a year at annual conventions, an oral hearing, if any, will be conducted in the discretion of a majority of the Executive Council only at such annual conventions or on such occasions when the Council as a whole is otherwise meeting.

f) Other Remedies. Nothing stated in the foregoing with respect to formal procedures for review by the Executive Council of actions or decisions shall prohibit or preclude any person dissatisfied with any such action or decision from pursuing an informal resolution of disputes, or grievances through the WBC Grievance and Appeals Committee as provided elsewhere in these Rules and Regulations; provided however, that remedies of review by the WBC shall not be fully exhausted unless the provisions of this Article XVII-3, where available and applicable have been pursued and completed.

g(Reinstatement of Suspended or Expelled Persons. At any time after available procedures for appeal within the WBC have been exhausted, a person or organization which has been suspended or expelled may petition the Executive Council in writting for reinstatement and such petition can be acted upon and reinstatement granted by the Executive Council upon a two-thirds vote.

XVII-4 Refusal to Testify. Any person who, after having been requested to do so, without adequate reason or refuses to appear and testify before any hearing held pursuant to this Article XVII, or to answer question pertaining to the subject matter of the hearing, is subject to suspension or such other penalties or discipline as may be appropriate under the circumstances.

XVII-5 Evidence Standards and Legal Representation In the conduct of any hearing or review of evidence under the provisions of this Article XVII, the applicable reviewing or fact-finding bodies shall not be bound by any technical rules of evidence, and each person or entity, who is a party to such proceedings shall be entitled to have legal counsel of his choice to represent him, her or it.

The RING

1982 RECORD BOOK AND BOXING ENCYCLOPAEDIA

THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE:
"The Authority and getting better."

THE PITTSBURGH POST-GAZETTE:
". . . full of the lore of the fight game."

THE NEW YORK TIMES:
"In a sport without a central organization,
The Record Book is the spine. . . . .
Complete, thorough and accurate."

THE MORNING TELEGRAM:
"The most astounding assortment of fistic facts ever put into the pages of a book."
